Genealogy
of the
John Pleasant Burton Family
Compiled by Nellie M. Starkey Knox
of Loveland, Colorado and
Wilson Burton Starkey
of Seattle, Washington

We gratefully acknowledge the help of Fay Burton Reiss of Kansas City, Missouri, who gathered data on several families and who contributed the article written by Isom Burton about 1880, the help of Blanche Burton Lank, of Shreveport, Louisiana, who contributed the Stamper Genealogy, and the help of Iva Burton Ellis of Ringling, Oklahoma, who contributed several family lines.

Data on the family prior to John Pleasant Burton have been gathered from various libraries in the United States. Several passages from the "Burton Chronicles of Colonial Virginia" by Francis Burton Harrison are quoted in this work, with due credit noted.

Information is given on related families which converge into this lineage.

Each descendant is given a key number. Example of the use of the numerical tables: 587 is Robert Burton Joki, his number is preceded by number 433, which shows his lineage through his mother, 433 Frances Ruth Starkey, preceded by 339, showing her father Wilson Burton Starkey, preceded by 256, showing his mother to be Ida Adele Burton, preceded by 109, showing her father to be Eli Maxwell Burton, preceded by 10, showing his father to be Rev. Hardin Burton, preceded by 1, showing Hardin Burton to be the son of John Pleasant Burton.

The Stamper name enters the Burton line through Susannah, daughter of Jonathan Sr. through her marriage to John Pleasant Burton.

MONROE

The name Monroe enters the Burton lineage through Chapman Arden Monroe, who was the husband of 7–68, Susannah Burton, daughter of David Burton and grand-daughter of John Pleasant Burton.

This lineage doubles when 10–109, Eli Maxwell Burton married 68–184, Susan Miranda Monroe, daughter of Chapman Arden Monroe and great grand-daughter of John Pleasant Burton.

HISTORY

Courtesy of Ina Monroe Pierson of Auburn, Washington.

There have been even more theories as to the origin of this illustrious Scottish surname than there have been ways to spell it. Probably the most likely of them all is the simplest, namely that the first family to bear the name took it from his early home, which was near a mountain on the river Roe in County Derry, in Ireland.

It appears that in the earliest times the name was spelled Munro, and that this form was Anglicized and Latinized to "de Monro." The most common forms today are Monro, Munro, and Munroe, also Monrow and Monroe, and in early New England records it was sometimes even abbreviated to Row and Roe.

The family which bears this name has had an ancient and honorable history. One account (it is practically impossible to verify) says that the family was of ancient Scots, who, driven from the country by the Romans, fled to Ireland and the Western Isles about 357 A. D. and that nearly seven hundred years later they returned to Scotland. However that may be, the earliest of the name of whom there is a definite record is Donald Monro. About the beginning of the 11th century he was granted extensive lands in the Shire of Ross by Malcolm, King of Scots—this grant constituting a payment for his services in the King's battles against the Danes. Part of these lands were later erected into the Barony of Fowlis.

Donald Monro died about 1053 A. D. His grandson, Hugh Monro, is the first to be designated Baron of Fowlis. This Barony has ever since been the seat and formed the title of the head of the Munro family in Scotland. For something like 800 years there has been uninterrupted descent in the male line, a fact which is said to be without parallel in the annals of Scotland or England.

Throughout the family's long history in Scotland, Monroe (or Munro) has been one of the most prominent names in that country. By an early date various branches of the family had already sprung from the parent stem above mentioned, so that by 1860 it was estimated, there were more than 10,000 of that name in Scotland alone.

Notable in Great Britain, the Monroes have not failed to distinguish themselves in America as well. The brave, heroic spirit which always characterized them in Scotland stood them in good stead during the pioneering days of this country.

One of the earliest ancestors of the American Monroes on record is Major Andrew Munro, a descendant of the Munros of Katewell (a branch from the main stem of Fowlis). It is said that he was banished to Virginia in 1648 for his part in the battle of Preston. He settled in Northumberland County, Va., where he had several grants of land made him. He married and had issue, the names of his children being Susanna, Elizabeth and Andrew. (President Monroe is from this family.) John Munro, a brother of Andrew, came to America a few years later. He was for some time a minister in Pomunkie, Va., and it is recorded that his descendants are numerous at the present time.

In 1651 four of the name (Robert, John. Hugh and William) were banished to America for their share in the battle of Worcester, in which they supported the cause of King Charles the First. Of these William is the only one concerning whom there is definite information. (Note: additional information secured from other sources will follow this article by Mrs. Pearson.) It is believed that he was descended from a branch of the ancient line of Fowlis, being in the eighteenth generation of the lineal descendants of Donald, the founder of the Clan Munro.

This William settled in Lexington, Mass., and it is from him that the Monroes known as the "Lexington" line descended. By his first wife, Martha George, he had four children; John, William, George and Martha. By his second wife, Mary Ball, he had Daniel, David, Joseph, Benjamin, Hannah, Elizabeth, Mary, Eleanor and Sarah. He died in 1717 in his ninety-second year, and his descendants in the United States are many, and widely scattered.

In the annals of the American Revolution are encountered the names of no less than several hundred of the family of Monroe.

A few of the many Monroes who have distinguished themselves in this country are the following: James Monroe (1758-1831), fifth President of the United States, descendant of Major Andrew Munro who settled in Virginia, James Munro (1821-1898), educator, congressman, Council at Rio de Janeiro, Dana Charlton Munro (1866-1933), famous historian.

The armorial bearings of the ancient Scottish family of Munro are described as follows:

Arms—"On a shield or (gold) an eagle's head, erased gules (red)."
Crest—"An eagle on the perch proper."
Supporters—"Two eagles proper."
Motto—"Dread God."
The tartan of the clan is very gay, the dominant color being red, and the secondary checks being yellow and green.

The following is a portion of the works of another author, and while it contains much of the subject of the previous article, it contains many leads that a future historian may wish to trace, and thus prove the ancestry beyond Joseph Monroe (1696-1744).

GENEALOGY OF THE CHAPMAN ARDEN MONROE FAMILY

The family came from Scotland in the year 1652. (Left London late in 1651 and arrived in Boston early 1652.) They were not emigrants but prisoners of war taken captive at the battle of Dunbarre, Scotland, between the British and the Scots, and shipped with a great many other Scottish prisoners to the Massachusetts Bay Colony to a Mr. Theo. Kimble of Boston, arriving there in 1652, this being recorded in the Registry of Deeds office in Boston.

In this list are the names of Robert, John, Hugh and William Monroe. They were sold, or rather apprenticed to Theo. Kimble, and he apprenticed them out to the farmers in the neighborhood for terms of service extending from five to seven years.

In a letter written by Rev. John Cotton of Boston to Lord Cromwell, Lord Protector of England, dated Nov. 1652, he says:

"The Scots whom God delivered into your hands at Dunbarre and whereof sundry were sent hither, we have been desirous as we could to make their yoke easy. Such as were sick of scurvy or other diseases have not wanted physick and chirurgery. They have not been sold as slaves to perpetual servitude but for 6 or 7 or 8 years as we do our own; he that bought most of them, I heare buildeth houses for them as their own, requiring 3 days in the week to work for him (by turnes), and four days for themselves, and promiseth as soon as they can repay him the money he laid out for them, he will set them at liberty."

(The spelling in the letter is the Rev. Cotton's.)

The Monroes in this group of prisoners soon worked out their liberty and established themselves in good surroundings and circumstances. William Monroe acquired a home and lands in Cambridge then Lexington and there he raised a large family and became well off. I am not able to state where Robert and Hugh settled, but in Boston or the immediate neighborhood. John Monroe settled at Bristol, then in Massachusetts but now in Rhode Island, and from him, tradition says, our branch of the family sprung. John married a woman named Mehitable, last name not known. Their first child was Joseph Monroe, who is supposed to be our ancestor. Joseph was born sometime between 1696 and 1698 and went to Norwalk, Conn., where he married a daughter of David Monroe. She was a second cousin, named Martha.

They were married in 1722 and one son was born of that marriage, David, named for his grandfather, David Monroe of Norwalk. Martha died after the birth of David. Then in 1731 David Monroe, the grandfather, died, his will was proved and recorded in the Courthouse at Norwalk, Conn., on March 1, 1731, and among other provisions of the will he made a bequest to his grandson David Monroe, "son of my son-in-law, Joseph Monroe." From this time on the record of the family is fairly clear.

After the death of his first wife, Joseph married Elizabeth Stuart on Nov. 17, 1732, at Norwalk, and a son was born to them named Reuben. The family moved to Sharon, Conn., where Joseph's wife Elizabeth died on April 14, 1742. Reuben married Ann Hawley on August 16, 1753, their first child was Sarah, born 4/14/1754, who married Zebede Turner at New Ashford, Mass. There was no issue from this marriage.

In 1756 Reuben moved to New Ashford, Berkshire County, Mass., and in 1757 a son whom they named Reuben Jr. was born.

Reuben Jr. married Miss . . . Bingham in 1778, the following children were born to them:

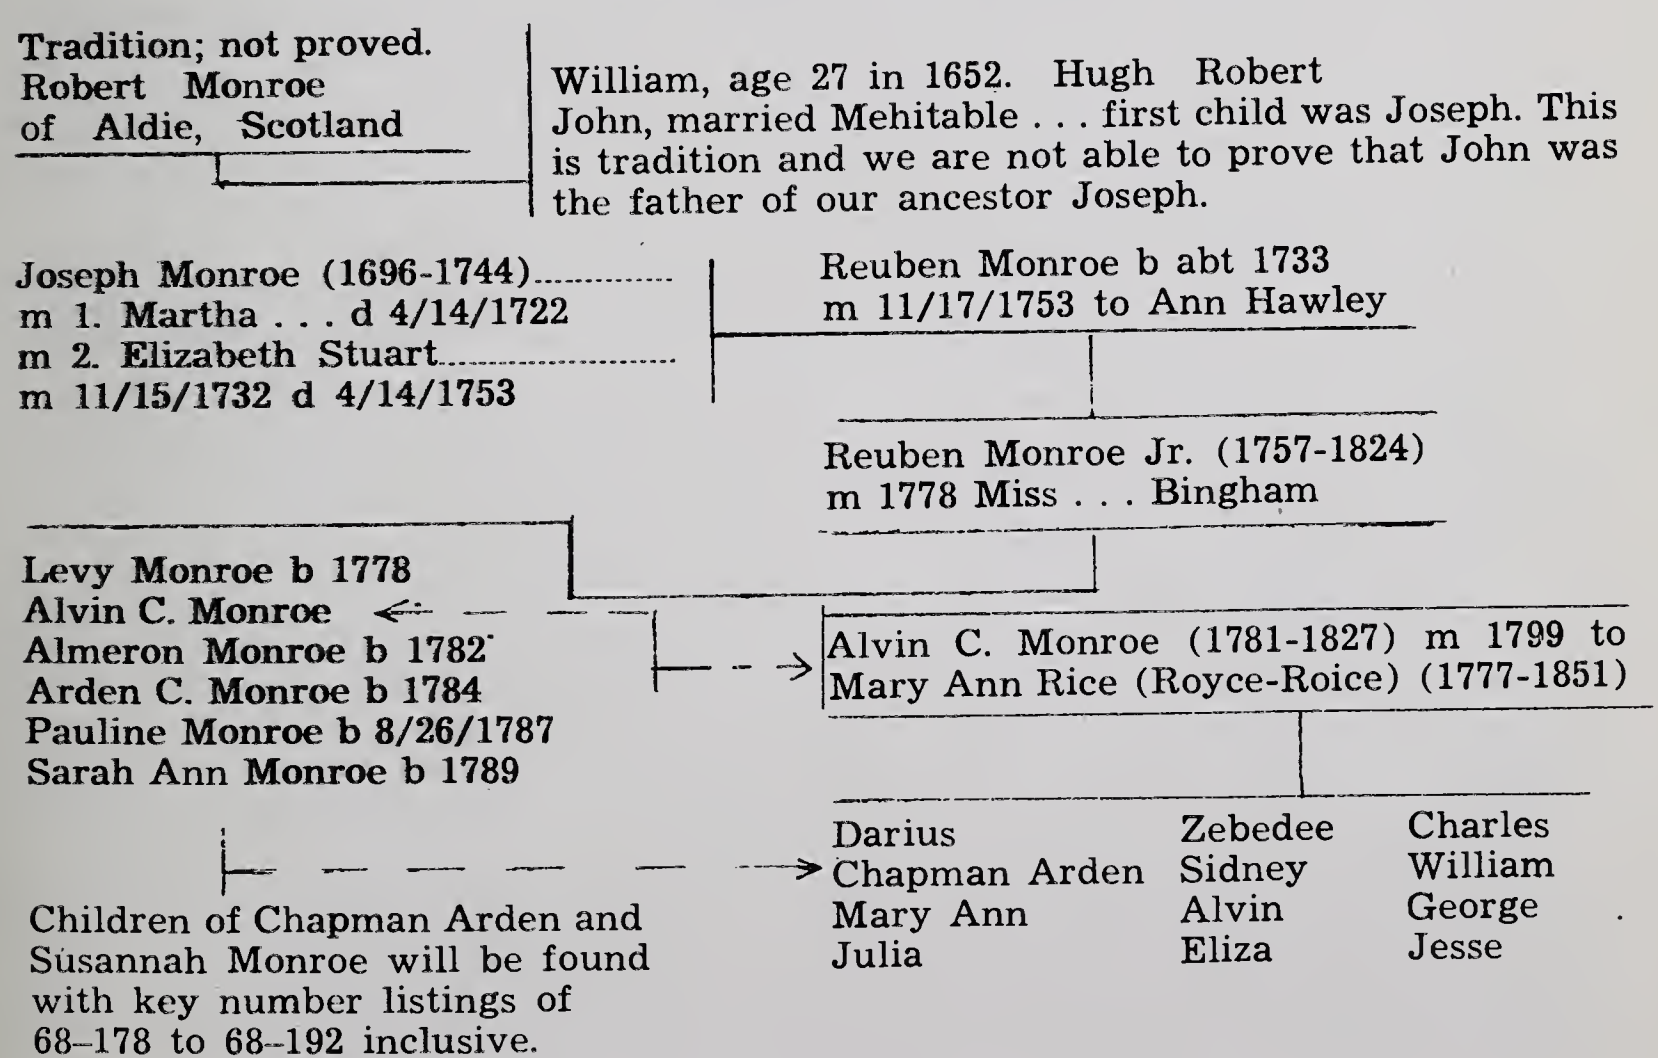
1. Levi Monroe, married and reared a family on the Scroon River, N. Y. We know nothing of his descendants.
2. Alvin C. Monroe, born May 20, 1781, in New Ashford, married on Jan. 16, 1781, to Mary Ann Rice (Roice or Royce).
3. Almeron Monroe b 1782.
4. Arden C. Monroe b 1784.
5. Pauline b 8/26/1787.
6. Sarah Ann Monroe b 1789.

Children of Alvin C. Monroe and his wife Mary Ann were: Darius, Zebedee, Charles, Chapman Arden, Sidney, Mary Ann, William, Alvin, Julia, George, Eliza and Jesse.

Chapman Arden Monroe, fourth child of Alvin C. Monroe and Mary Ann, was married to Lucinda Stilson on March 27th, 1833. Their children were: Helen b 12/27/1833 d 8/27/1852 unmarried. Steven C. Monroe b 8/16/1836. The wife Lucinda died Sept. 6, 1836.

On Sept. 18, 1839, Chapman Arden Monroe took a second wife who was Susannah Burton, daughter of David Burton of Mitchell, Ind. Her key number in this work is 7–68, and the children of this union will be found with key number 68–178 to 68–192 inclusive.

GENEALOGY CHART



Part of a letter written by B. D. Monroe to his brother Henry:

David Monroe, grandson of the original David of Norwalk, son of Joseph Monroe, and of course a brother of Reuben Monroe Sr. married Sarah Meeker in Nov. 1742, and you will find his genealogy pretty well set forth on pages 355 & 356 of Genealogy of Josiah Monroe.

Our ancestor, Joseph Monroe had so far as known, one brother named Samuel Monroe who lived at Sharon and whose descendants are scattered over Conn., Mass., N. Y., Mich., Penn. and other states.

I got quite a good deal of information in relation to Joseph Monroe and the two Reubens from Uncle Jesse Monroe and an old Bible that had belonged to his mother.

It is quite certain that Paulina and Sarah Ann Monroe were children of Reuben, Jr. by a second wife. Paulina married Alvin Goodrich and Sarah Ann married Benj. Sabin, but I know nothing of their descendants.

Reuben Monroe Sr. owned a large farm in the valley of the Williamantic River consisting of 320 acres. He willed it to the children of Reuben, Jr. and made Zebedee Turner trustee. He sold the land and invested the proceeds in land in Cayuga County, N. Y. where the family had moved and to which he and his wife also moved. But the money was lost by some means, Uncle Jesse could not tell why or how.

The graves of these old men of the Monroe family are marked with stones (so Uncle Jesse said). He put up some of them himself, and asked me to go with him when he was having them put up.

I have collected quite a good deal of information relative to our ancestors. I furnished Will Seymour Monroe of Mount Clair, N. J. quite a good deal of matter which he turned over to Mr. Northrup who prepared the Genealogy of Josiah Monroe.

And I have also looked up the family record of Ann Hawley and in that way I traced Joseph and his son from Sharon Conn. to New Ashford, Mass.

MAXWELL

The name "Maxwell" enters the Burton line through Lucy Maxwell, the second wife of Hardin Burton, who was the sixth child of John Pleasant Burton. Hardin and Lucy were married in Lawrence County, Ind., in 1835.

Lucy Maxwell was born Sept. 6, 1806, in Ashe County, N. C. (Ashe County was formed from a part of Wilkes County), and was brought by her parents to Lawrence Co., Ind., in 1816. Her father was William Maxwell.

From "History of Mitchell and Marion Township, Indiana," by James W. Edwards. Reprinted from the Mitchell, Ind., Tribune, 1916:

"Nearly all the families who came to find homes during the years 1816 and 1817 were from Ashe Co. N. C. or Grayson Co. Va. . . . William Maxwell and William Baldwin located on what is now the Reuben Miller farm."

The first Church, "Spice Valley Baptist Church" "It was about seven years after the church was organized before a church building was erected. In the winter time the people met to worship in the homes of the members and in the summer they met either in the grove or in Wm. Maxwell's mill shed. . . ."

BURTON

(There seems to be diversity of opinion about the grandfather of John Pleasant Burton. Therefore material on two lines is included.)

The ancient family of Burton is descended from Jugenulphus de Burton, Lord of Tatbury and keeper of its forest of Needlewood at the time of William the Conqueror. Robert Burton, author, and Robert Burton, the historian, were of this family, descended maternally from John of Gaunt.

Francis Burton Harrison in "Burton Chronicles of Colonial Virginia" writes:

"The first Henrico (County) Burtons came from England during the troubled times of Charles the First. Burton is by origin a place name, signifying 'Burgton' or 'Bouroughtown'. The archives of London during Tudor and Stuart times contain numerous Burtons, and it seems probable that those of the name that are found in Virginia during the early period came from the London stock. In his 'History of Virginia' Capt. John Smith mentioned the arrival of Geo. Burton, Gent. in the second supply in 1608.

"Hotten gives the following as having embarked from the Port of London for Virginia: Richard Burton age 28 in the Swan, 1624; Thomas Burton age 19 in the Ann and Elizabeth in 1635; William Burton age 24 in the Thomas in 1635.

"However there is no evidence to connect any of these immigrants with the Thomas and John Burton of Henrico County, with whom in 1656 our narrative pedigree begins. Among all the families of which memory is preserved in the Virginia Colonial Records it would be difficult to match the Burtons of Henrico for lack of the romantic. They were a most respectable lot, devoting their lives generation after generation to getting lands, 'getting' children and growing tobacco.

"Henrico, one of the original Shires or Counties of Virginia lay on both sides of the James River. The strategic advantages of this locality soon attracted the invading English. The Parish of Virginia was established, and in this vicinity as early as 1650 we first definitely identify our Burtons as land owners. There are scattered references to Burtons in the early records of York and Gloucester, but the line of which we write is associated solely with the valley of the James.

"The Burtons of Henrico seem to have been content with their occupation of raising and marketing tobacco. There are no startling advances or reverses of fortune, it was in the main a steady up-building of family influence and wealth. Planting was an occupation which they understood, and in which they made a success.

"The vexations of spiritual life did not seem to disturb the Colonial Burtons. They were members of the Established Church. Not one of them became a Quaker, as did many of their neighbors. Even political life had no apparent attraction for them, the highest office to have been filled by a Burton down to the time of the Revolution was Justice of the Peace, Sheriff or Vestryman. These offices, though charged with many public duties were of the social rather than political importance.

"The Burtons, through five generations, stayed by the occupations which they best understood. Year after year, they with their white indentured servants, and with numerous negro slaves raised their crops of tobacco until the soil of their plantations was worn out, and then passed on to fresh fields farther up the river, —sturdy, tenacious, respectable people of the class which composed the real life blood of Virginia. By the third generation their social status had risen. As planters they began, and as planters they remained until after the Revolution, their descendants scattered far and wide through the new territories of the south and west.

"The pedigree of the two main lines of Henrico Burtons begins with Thomas and John Burton who in 1656 acquired the 350 acre plantation of 'Cobbs' on the north side of the Appomattox and just west of the Bermuda Hundred. Whether these two men, who each left behind him on his death, sons to found a line of sturdy planters and pioneers, were immigrants to Virginia or, as seems more possible, were the sons of an earlier Burton remains unproved. The surviving records of Henrico begin with 1677, a date when Thomas Burton and his sons had long been settled at Cobbs, while John Burton and his sons were already seated at Longfield on or near the North shore of the James.

"In the year 1636 William Barton is mentioned as a headright of the widow Mrs. Alice Edloe of Henrico, whose lands in Lily Valley adjoined those granted in 1665 to John Burton. A Thomas Barton had been claimed as a headright in 1634 by Capt. Thomas Osborne of Henrico, who also named Isaac Hutchins and Robert Cradock in the same patent. Barton was not a name subsequently known as that of a family of Henrico, while Burton flourished and grew exceedingly in that very vicinity. It seems reasonably certain that these two Bartons were Burtons and either of them may have been the father of Thomas Burton of Cobbs, or of John Burton of Longfield. The two Burtons who took joint title to Cobbs in 1656 were obviously related, and almost certainly brothers.

"For the next 48 years Thomas and his sons lived in Cobbs. In 1704 it was sold by one of John Burton's sons to John Bolling and subsequently became famous in the social annals of Virginia. In 1680 Thomas Burton took the precaution of getting a patent himself for these lands. By 1665 John Burton had already branched out for himself, for that year he patented 700 acres of the Longfield in Lily Valley on Cornelius Creek a few miles up the river and on the other side from the mouth of the Appomattox.

"It is not known how the name of Hutchins entered the Burton family. The Hutchins were neighbors of the Burtons in Henrico. Of these the first was Isaac Hutchins, who with Thomas Barton and others was a headright of Capt. Thomas Osborne of Henrico in 1637."

Note: In Colonial Virginia, for bringing in another immigrant, colonists were granted 50 acres of land (headright). This record of headrights, however, is not a reliable guide for setting dates of entry of our ancestors into the Colonies, as the name of the same man appears on several headright grants. For instance, the name of the same man appears on eight different land grants.

P 211 Burton Chronicles of Colonial Virginia:

About the year 1720 Nowell Burton married Judith Allen. In 1719 Richard Allen settled next to him in the eastern part of Henrico. It was the fashion in Virginia to obey the Biblical injunction "love thy neighbor." This alliance was the first outbreak of an epidemic of Allen marriages in the Burton family. p. 221 (Mary Hunt Minge Allen) "Not only did her daughter Tabitha Minge marry a Hutchins Burton, son of Nowell[1], but her step-daughter Judith, daughter of her husband William Allen also married a Hutchins Burton, son of Hutchins[1]. (Nowell[1] and Hutchins[1] were brothers.)

(Susannah Allen, daughter of Samuel Allen of New Kent County was the wife of Hutchins[1].)

In 1719 Hutchins Burton received an appointment as a road surveyor, indicating that he was at least 21 years old. 1719 was a great year in his life, for it was in that year that he married Susannah Allen who bore him nine sons and at least two daughters, and who survived his death in 1763. The record of this marriage is in the register of St. Peter's Parish in New Kent County: Mr. Hutchins Burton and Susanna Allen was married March ye 31, 1719.

Hutchins[1] Burton owned at least 2500 acres of land in Henrico and Cumberland —the evidence of a fairly successful life for a planter of his day. He was what is known as a practical man. He did not "waste time" in public service. He was a road surveyor in 1719, 1735 and 1741, Constable from 1737 to 1741, served on a jury in 1738 and on the grand jury in 1746 (Henrico Order books). His life was spent in acquiring land, working it, and seating his nine sons on their own estates.

Dated May 9, 1763, probated Oct. 3, 1763.

"His son David died before testator, and is not mentioned in the will. Of the eleven children Hutchins Burton and his wife Susanna are known to have had, seven bear given names common in Susanna's family, the Allens of New Kent."

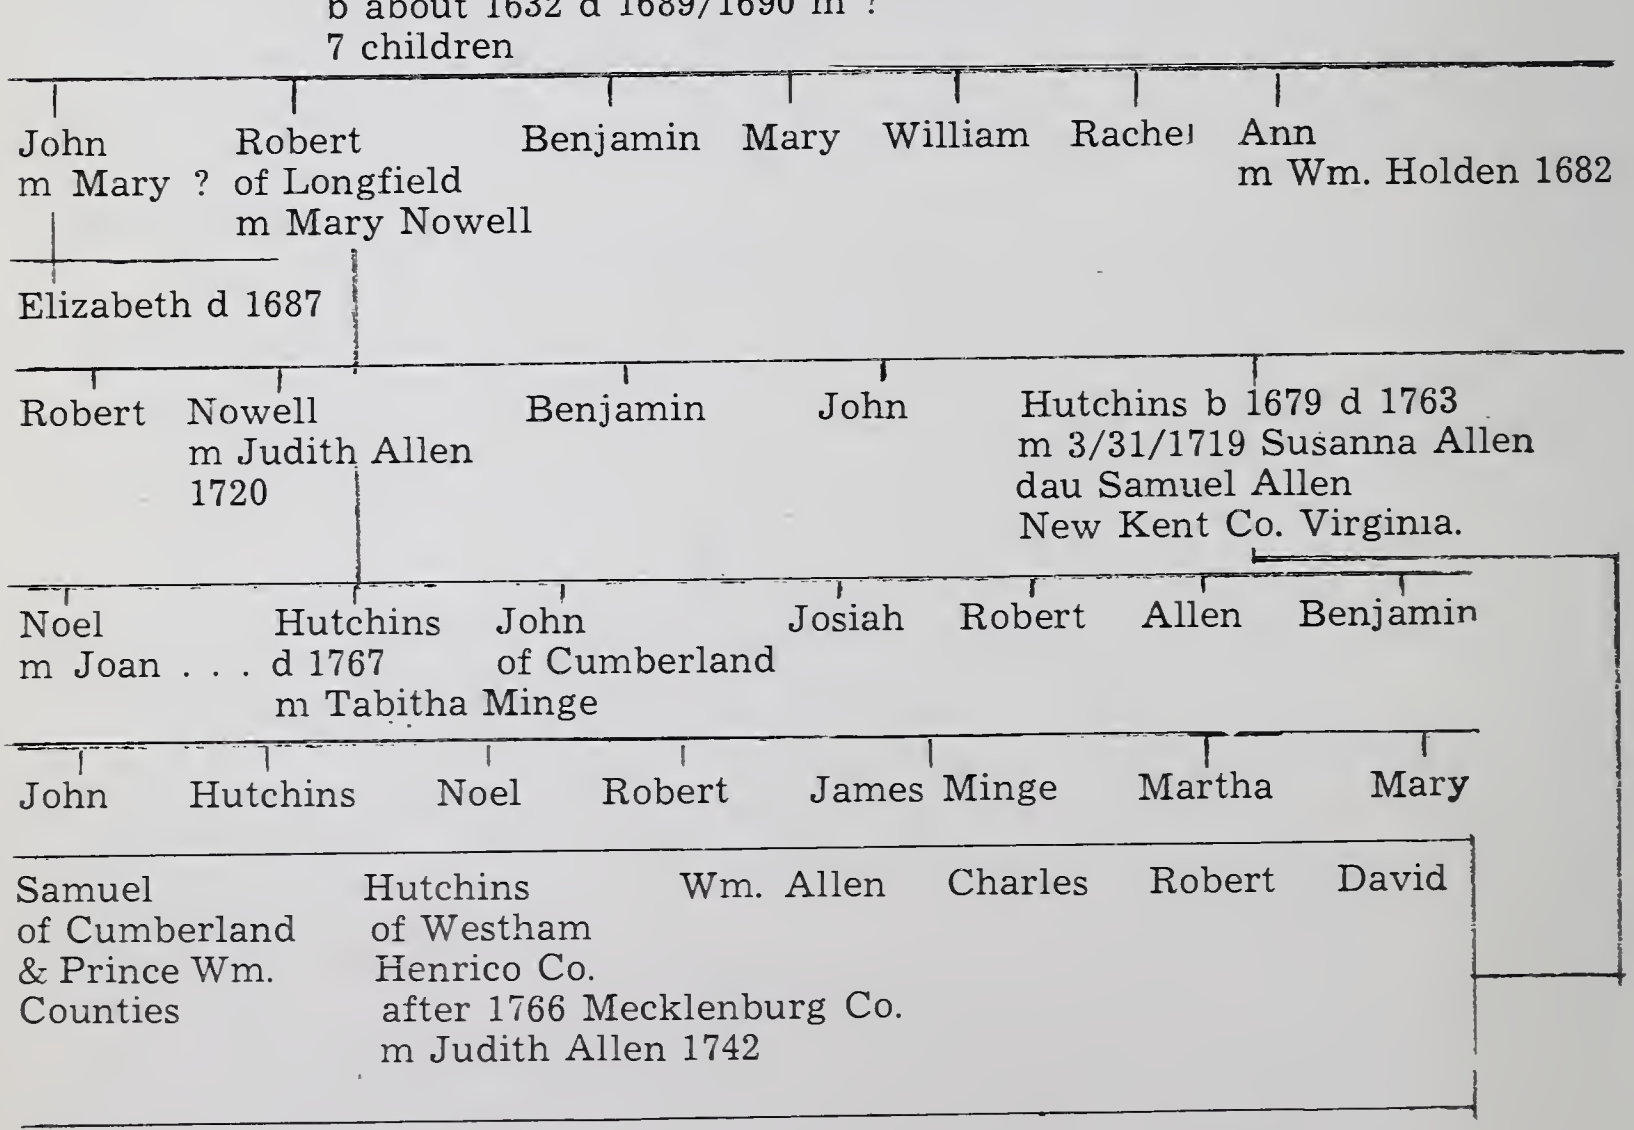
From Frances Burton Harrison's writings:

p 238 Hutchins Burton[2] soon after 1763 left for Mecklenburg Co. where his first cousin of the same name, son of Nowell Burton was a prominent resident. In 1767 Hutchins[2] (son of Hutchins[1]) deeded to his brother William Allen, then living in Cumberland Co., for 500 pounds, current money of Virginia 300 acres in the County of Henrico in Westham. In this deed he describes himself as "Hutchins Burton of the County of Mecklenburg." The 300 acres in Westham was of course his share of the patrimony.

p 240 In Febr. 1765 there was a suit of Samuel, John and Richard Burton in chancery against William Allen Burton.

p 249 Richard, another son of Hutchins[1] like his brothers, settled in Cumberland County for in 1749 a deed by Nowell Burton, (his uncle) and Richard Burton to Wm. Bernard for land in that County recites the fact that the tract conveyed had been granted to aforesaid Nowell Burton by patent Jan. 25, 1735, and by him conveyed to Richard Burton. Shortly after the conveyence the Order Book of the County 1749/51 page 13 notes that his wife relinquished her right of dower in this land, but the entry is so mutulated that the name of the wife cannot be read.

GENEALOGY CHART



From Mr. Archibald F. Bennett, General Secretary for the Genealogical Society of the Church of Jesus Christ of the Latter Day Saints, Salt Lake City, Utah:

A mention of Richard in Burton Chronicles of Colonial Virginia contains these paragraphs:

"1763, William Allen Burton as executor of the will of his father sued Mary Burton, the widow of his brother David. (In Chancery); February 1765, there was a suit of Samuel Burton, John Burton, and Richard Burton in Chancery, against William Allen Burton. (page 240)

"VIII. Richard, another son of Hutchins settled, like his brothers, William Allen Burton and David, in Cumberland County, for in 1749 a deed by Nowell Burton (his uncle) and Richard Burton to William Bernard of land in that county, recites the fact that the tract conveyed had been 'granted to aforesaid Nowell Burton by patent January 25, 1735, and by him conveyed to Richard Burton.' Shortly after that his wife relinquished her right to dower in this land (Order Book of the County, 1749-51, page 13), but the entry is so mutulated that the name of his wife cannot be read.

"The first mention of him in the records of Goochland (Cumberland) county Order Book for 1732 is when he was awarded by the court a reward of 400 pounds of tobacco on the certificate of George Payne for two wolves' heads. Richard was a small boy at this time.

"While a resident of Cumberland county, Richard Burton made a hobby of litagation. The Order Book for 1749-51 contains the following references to him: p. 31, Alex Spiers vs. Richard Burton; p. 32, Thos. Yuille, Esq. & Co. vs. Richard Burton; p. 155 Gideon Man vs. Richard Burton, trespass, assault and battery; p. 156 Richard Burton and Allen Burton plts. vs. John Hopson, Thomas Merryman vs. Richard Burton. By 1760 Richard was back in Henrico, for he then witnessed a deed by Edmond Alley (Alldey); and in March 1764 Richard was found guilty of troubling the peace, and a bond 'to good behavior' was given by his brothers Julius and William Allen Burton. When the case came up again in court, his mother Susanna Burton gave security. If we knew the story of this breach of peace, we might clothe the dry bones of this phantom man of long ago with some semblance of individualaty. The last reference in Henrico records to Richard was in June 1764 when Samuel Burton brought suit against his brother Richard. This was a year after his father's death and it was a good example of 'when Greek meets Greek'. Samuel was the black sheep of the family and Richard was not far behind him." (p. 251)

"By the year 1768 references in Henrico records to the sons of Hutchins Burton cease. David is the only one of the nine sons known to have died before this date; Robert, Nowell and Richard may have continued on in Henrico, and if still living, the other five were residents of Mecklenberg, Cumberland or Prince Edward Counties." (p. 251)

"The probability of the identity of this Richard Burton of Cumberland County with your Richard Burton seems great."

From N. C. State Dept. of Archives and History: Wilkes County Court Minutes 1778-1785-1797.

June, 1779. Ordered that letters of administration issue to John Burton, eldest son of Richard Burton, who Dyed without making a will.

Sept. 1779. Ordered by the Court that the estates of John Burton, Joshua Yeates (and others) be sold at public sale on the 20th inst.

March, 1780. Inventory of the estate of Richard Burton, dec'd returned by John Burton, admr. Ordered that all the goods and chattels belonging to the estate of Richard Burton, dec'd be sold by the Sheriff.

HUNT

Index to Rolls of Honor—Ancestor Index: 24 Octobris 1635. Aboard the Constance, Clement Campion, Master, bound to Virginia William Hunt.

"Lost Tribes of North Carolina" pp. 610-611. Wm. Hunt 800 acres at the head of Beaver Dam Branch, a branch of the Western Branch of Nansemond River 14 December 1635 for transporting 16 persons.

William and Mary Quarterly Vol. 22 p. 195. Commission issued 17 of August 1640 authorizing Wm. Hunt to transport corn, pork and bacon to the neighboring Colony of New England.

There are clear references to a younger Wm. Hunt in numerous places in the Isle of Wight Records.

"Lost Tribes" p. 611, Children of William Hunt:

William Hunt, Jr., Col. John Hunt of N.C., Godfrey Hunt, Henry Hunt, Mary Hunt.

Isle of Wight County records p. 222 Daniel Boucher, Burgess for the Isle of Wight in 1653-54 died leaving a will in 1667 in which he leaves legacies to kinsmen Robert Boucher, Hodges Council and William and Mary, children of William Hunt. It was this Mary Hunt who married (1) Robert Edwards, (2) Owen Griffin, (3) Wm. Boddie.

This Wm. Hunt was probably the Wm. Hunt who was one of Nathaniel Bacon's friends. He died November 17, 1676. Age 77 years.

Virginia Magazine of History and Biography Vol. 21, pp. 234, 359, 365 under dates July 1676, Mar. 19 and 29, 1677, we find records of goods assigned to him by ship from England and seized by Gov. Berkeley. In Vol. 22 p. 366 in Oct. 1677 his estate, among others, was seized by Berkeley because he befriended Nathaniel Bacon. In Vol. 23 p. 155 Jan. 1677-8, we find his son William Hunt, Jr., petitioning for the return of his father's property, the elder William having died the preceding Nov.

"Lost Tribes" p. 611. William Hunt, Jr. is believe to have been the same person of the name who married Tabitha Edloe and had George, John, William and Mary Hunt.—This younger Mary Hunt married Robert Minge, son of James Minge, the old land surveyor. She was born May 15, 1695 and by this her first marriage had two daughters, Tabitha and Martha Minge. Tabitha married Hutchings Burton who was evidently named for Richard Hutchins, son-in-law of Joseph Cobb and a neighbor on the Western Branch on Cypress Swamp of the Hunts, Boddies and Cobbs. After the death of Robert Minge, the younger Mary Hunt (Mrs. Minge) married Wm. Allen and by him had Ann, Samuel, Wm. Hunt, John, Valentine, Geo. H. and Mary.

In Surry there is a deed from William Allen of Charles City County and Mary, his wife, conveying 200 acres to John Allen of Surry, patented by William Hunt in 1701 and bequeathed by his will dated May 17, ? to his daughter (Mary).

MINGE

William and Mary Quarterly Vol. 15 (1) p. 280. Minge, James[1] was clerk of the general assembly in 1673 and in 1676 was a friend of Nathaniel Bacon. He resided in Martin Brandon's Parish, Charles City County (afterward Prince George Co.). In 1693 James[2] Minge, probably son of the first named was clerk of James City Co. In 1693 a deed recorded in York Co. names the following children of Robert Harrison, gentleman: Nicholas, Robert, James, AMADEA, wife of JAMES MINGE, etc.

HARRISON

Lost Tribes, p. 253 254:

Robert Harrison (1613-1668) settled first in Middletown (Bruton) Parish and latterly in York, Hampton Parish in York Co. Va. and in 1650 married Elizabeth Comins (Commings) daughter of Nicholas Comins and his wife Eleanor. After the death of Nicholas Comins his wife Eleanor married Frances Wheeler. Many of the Harrisons in North and South Carolina were descended from this Robert Harrison, including COL. ROBERT BURTON whose grandmother was AMADEA HARRISON. ROBERT HARRISON was a builder and erected the brick prison in Yorktown and perhaps the customs house erected there.

AMADEA HARRISON was mentioned as the grandchild of MRS. ELEANOR WHEELER in her will in 1660. And AMADEA HARRISON, after having been previously married once or twice finally married JAMES MINGE, the clerk of Charles City County and they were the parents of ROBERT MINGE who married MARY HUNT, daughter of WILLIAM HUNT and TABITHA—. This last marriage produced TABITHA MINGE who married HUTCHINS BURTON.

A HISTORY OF THE BURTON FAMILY

This is a copy of an article written about 1880 by Isom Burton, a twin son of John Pleasant Burton. This article is from the "History of Lawrence, Orange and Washington Counties, Indiana," published in Chicago in 1884 by Goodspeed.

* * * *

The Burton Family in the U. S. A., numbering at the present time (1880) over 80,000 are of English and Welsh origin. The first authentic account we have of the family in this country is the settlement of four brothers, John, Richard, Thomas, and Allen, near the present site of Richmond, Va. in the year 1665.

All purchased large tracts of land in what is now Henrico County, except Thomas, and all married and reared large families, many of whom became distinguished in military and civil life, among whom might be mentioned Colonels Robert and Hutchins Burton, who served on General Washington's Staff in the War of the Revolution, and the latter (Hutchins) as Governor of North Carolina after the war.

William Burton, brother of Gideon Burton, a wholesale boot and shoe dealer of Cincinnatti, was Governor of Rhode Island.

The late Allen A. Burton of Illinois and John W. Burton of Tennessee were jurists of recognized ability, the former being the only man in his county in Kentucky who voted for Abraham Lincoln in 1860. Lincoln afterward made him Minister to Chili.

John Burton of Virginia was a noted Baptist Divine. The Burton family is represented in all the trades, professions and different departments of business, the largest number, however, being engaged in agricultural pursuits.

In the late war they furnished their proportion of the army, rank and file, from Major General to private. Some fought for the "lost cause", but whether willingly or not, this writer was unable to learn. Those residing in North Carolina, Kentucky, and Tennessee, however, were largely represented in the Union Army.

The Burtons residing in this portion of Indiana, Lawrence County, are descendants of Richard Burton, a native of the Old Dominion, who, soon after the war of the Revolution removed with his family to Ashe County, North Carolina, near Ashéville at a point called Hooks Place (Hooks Mills).

Richard's son, John Pleasant, was born in Virginia on July 8, 1758 and was married in Ashe Co. N. C. to Miss Susannah Stamper who was born 8/22/1767. To them were born the following children; Richard, Patsy, Allen, John, Mary, David, William, Hutchins, Hardin, Zachariah, Ann and Eli and Isom, twins. Of this large family only the three youngest sons are now living.

John Pleasant Burton came with his family to this county (Lawrence) Indiana in 1826, locating on a farm now owned by Ransom Burton. John Pleasant Burton died 7/4/1836 and his wife Susannah died 8/10/1845. They were people of the highest respectability and had the love and respect of all who knew them.

John Pleasant Burton was a member of the Masonic Order and a great admirer of the ancient institution. Besides rearing thirteen children of their own, they reared six orphans, doing and caring for them as though they were their own. All their children married and reared large families.

William Buchanan Burton, one of their sons was married in Ashe Co. N. C. to Miss Obedience Reeves, and came to Lawrence County, Ind. in 1826, locating on a farm now owned by their son, John Wesley, which they soon made their home, and where nine of their fifteen children were born. William was one of the best known and most prominent of John Pleasant's sons. He was an unswerving Democrat, and represented Lawrence County in the State Legislature. He assisted in many of the early land surveys and was a useful and progressive citizen. He died 9/20/1846 and his wife died 7/28/1853. Several of the children now reside in Lawrence Co., namely, Alfred, Allen C., Eli and John Wesley.

Alfred was born in Ashe Co. N. C. 9/22/1816 and came to Lawrence Co. with his parents in 1826, in 1842 married Hannah Hamer, daughter of the late Hugh Hamer. To them were born eleven children: Hugh H., Mary E., Caroline O., William, Felix G., Catherine, Alice A., George C., Theodosia, Josephine, and Oscar J. Alfred Burton has always followed farming and is one of the County's most worthy citizens.

Eli, a brother of Alfred was born in Ashe Co. N. C. 10/2/1822, being four years of age when he moved to Indiana. He married Miss Sarah Koontz 8/15/1850. She died 6/27/1877. The following children were born to them: Henry Anderson, Nancy Jane, Mary Elizabeth, Franklin Pierce, Delana Buelah, Nettie Florence, Eli Grant, Laura Emily, and two infants. In 1879 Mr. Burton married Elizabeth Brown Taylor. Mr. Burton owns a good farm and is a successful farmer and stock raiser.

Allen C. was born in the township in which he now resides, 1/12/1827, and received the benefits of a common school education. September 10, 1840 he was united in marriage with Miss Elizabeth Holmes, a native of Lawrence County, and to them were born four sons: William S., Joseph R., Zachariah T., and Charles W. Mrs. Burton died 2/3/1854. Mr. Burton then married Miss Sarah A. Richards Nov. 16, 1854. She was born in Jackson County, Ind. in 1830. They had six children: James Buchanan, Alonzo, Sallie Obedience, Indiana, Lydia and Delana.

Allen C. voted with the Democratic party until the breaking out of the late war, since which he has voted with and zealously labored for the success of the Republican party. He has twice appraised the real estate of Lawrence County, has been one of its commissioners and also held other positions of honor and trust. He has given his children liberal educations and has taken an active and leading part in the advancement of all enterprises that go to build up the Country or benefit his fellow man. He served as Second Lieutenant in Company H, 67th Indiana Volunteer Infantry in the late war, was discharged on account of physical disability. He has always been engaged in agricultural pursuits, and is one of the county's most progressive and useful citizens.

John Wesley Burton was born on the old homestead in Marion Township October 12, 1828, which has always been his home. He received a common school education and December 14th 1854 was united in marriage with Miss Nancy Jane Baker, a native of Orange County, Indiana, her birth occuring April 27, 1830. Eight children have been born to them: Volney T., Obedience, Douglas, Clara E., Mary L., Edgar, Jesse and Virgil. Mr. Burton owns a well improved farm of 350 acres. In politics he is a staunch Republican and during the war did much to encourage the boys in the field and keep up a strong loyal sentiment at home. He liberally contributed to all laudable public enterprises and is one of the leading farmers and public spirited citizens of the county.

Richard Burton, eldest child of John Pleasant and Susannah Stamper, was a native of Ashe County, N. C. and there was married to Miss Nancy Edwards. To them these children were born: John, Jane, Young, Robert, Noah, David E., James, Celia, Hiram, Susan, Mary, Cynthia and Timansia. Richard and his wife were well and favorably known to the early settlers and were people of the highest worth.

David E. is a native of Ashe County N. C. his birth occuring August 26, 1815. His educational advantages were very limited, and from early childhood he was accustomed to hard work. He was married July 29, 1844 to Miss Catherine Conley, daughter of Joseph and Margaret McBride Connely, both natives of the old North State, as was their daughter, whose birthdate was January 2, 1828. Twelve children were born to David E. and his wife: Timanza, Joseph, Margaret, Nancy A., Phoebe, Richard, Susan, Rebecca, Jincie, Naomi, Frances and Henry. David E. has been a lifelong Democrat; a self made man and one of the wealthiest farmers in Lawrence County, owning at the present time nearly 2000 acres of land.

Reverend Hardin Burton, ninth of John Pleasant's children, was born in North Carolina in 1798. He came to Indiana in 1827 and settled in Bloomfield, Green County. He was thrice married his first wife being Miss Jennie Reeves who bore him the following children: Jackson, John, Singleton, Chaney, Ann and Jane. His second wife was Miss Lucy Maxwell, whom he married in 1835. The following children were born to them: George W., Nancy, James, Eli, Isom, Hardin and William J. In 1865 he married Miss Kiziah McBride, who still survives him. In 1834 he came to Lawrence County and engaged in farming and stock raising. In 1843 he was licensed to preach and two years later was ordained a minister of the Baptist Church, and from this date on, gave much of his time to his professional duties. He did much to build up the churches of Lawrence County and the adjoining Counties. He was industrious, philanthropic, an upright Christian, true to all life's obligations. He died October 6, 1875. Several of his children are residents of Lawrence County, among whom are: Dr. John Burton of Georgia, Indiana, and Dr. George W. of Mitchell. Dr. John was born in Ashe Co. N. C. March 16, 1821, the second child of his father's first marriage. He was brought up on the farm, receiving a common school education. He married Miss Linna Riggs October 26, 1839. She is the daughter of Moses and Mahala (Laswell) Riggs. To this union the following children were born: Mahala J., Jackson, Levisa A., Nancy S., Hardin R., Mary E. and Moses. Dr. John Burton followed farming until 1845 when he took up the study of medicine, which he pursued until 1851 when he began practising, which he has since continued with unusual and uniform success. At present he has a large and steadily increasing practice. He now owns 300 acres of land. He is a Democrat, member of the Masonic order, and the Baptist Church, one of the leading and useful men of his county.

Dr. George Burton was born in Lawrence County, Ind. July 28, 1836, eldest child of his father's second marriage. His youth and early manhood were spent on the farm. He completed High School in 1852 and in 1853 took a commercial course. On finishing his education he was employed on the staff of civil engineers in the construction of the Ohio and Mississippi Railway. He then taught school and studied medicine until 1857 when he took a course of lectures at the Iowa State University and, after practicing for a while, took a partial course of lectures at the McDowell Medical College of St. Louis. At the outbreak of the war he joined the Fifth Missouri Regiment, where he served until ill health compelled him to resign. He then came to Huron Ind. where he followed his profession until August of 1862 when he again entered the service, this time as a member of the Seventeenth Indiana Volunteer Infantry, serving in the line and on the medical staff, alternately until the spring of 1863, when he was again compelled to resign because of ill health. He immediately returned to his home and his practice. On the last call for volunteers in the fall of 1864, he raised Company D, one hundred and forty-fifth Indiana Volunteer Infantry, of which he was appointed Captain, and also acted as assistant surgeon, and later as acting surgeon of the regiment until the end of the war.

In 1873 he came to Mitchell and remained. He has been prominent in all the Medical organizations of the State. He joined the Lawrence County Medical Society on its organization in 1862, and was one of the organizers of the Mitchell Dist. Medical Society which was organized in 1874, the first society of this kind in southern Indiana, and was its first delegate to the American Medical Society held in Detroit in 1874. In 1875 he took the degree of Dr. of Medicine at the College of Physicians and Surgeons at Indianapolis Indiana. Also in 1875 he with others, organized the Tri-State Medical Society of Indiana, Illinois and Kentucky, was made secretary and has continued as such ever since. He was made a member of the Indiana Health Commission in 1875, and in 1877 took a degree at the Hospital Medical College at Louisville. He is an honorary Member of the Southwestern Kentucky Medical Association, also of those of Jackson and Orange Counties. He was one of the organizers of the South Central and Normal School of Mitchell. He became a member of the Masons in 1866, and in 1869 became a member of the Grand Lodge; in 1872 of the Royal Arch and in 1877 of the Council. He has also been a member of the Town Council and belongs to the Baptist Church. Altho of a Democratic family, he is a staunch Republican. May 1, 1857 he was united in marriage with Miss Hattie C. Campbell, daughter of Dougal Campbell of Illinois, a descendant of the old Dougal Campbell family of Scotland. They had five children: Ava, Lizzie and Ella, now living, and Grace and George, deceased.

Zachariah Burton, son of John Pleasant and Susannah was born in Ashe Co. N. C. Sept. 12, 1801 and reared on a farm, receiving but a limited education. His first venture into business was a huckster. He would buy a team and wagon on time, then load with brandy, apple butter, tallow, etc. and take them to points in Georgia, where he would dispose of all and return to his home on foot, a distance of several hundred miles, then as soon as possible, his trip would be repeated. In this way he got his start in life and by being honest, trustworthy, and never abusing his credit, he built up for himself an enviable reputation, and acquired considerable property. During his long and eventful lifetime he has ever sustained the reputation he established at the beginning of life. He united in marriage with Mrs. Ruth Core Holmes, a native of Louisville Ky. The following children were born: Caswell R., Ransom, Mary S., Hugh F., John C., Virginia C., Zachariah, Margaret E., and Juliet. Mrs. Burton had two children by a former marriage, William and Elizabeth Holmes. Mrs. Burton died August 8, 1844.

May 27, 1845 Mr. Burton married Mrs. Matilda Wright who was born near Shelbyville Kentucky in 1817, and whose maiden name was Teagarden. By this union there were seven children: Ann, Sarah J., William H., George W., Shubel, Caroline, and one that died in infancy. Uncle Zack, as he was commonly called, is one of the oldest and best known of the early settlers in Marion Township since 1826, and he has the respect and confidence of all who know him. He is a member of the Baptist Church and has been a lifelong Democrat. The county would be much better off if it had more men such as Uncle Zack Burton.

Ransom Burton, first child of Zachariah by his first wife was born in Marion Township, this County April 13, 1829, and reared on his father's farm. October 9, 1851 he married Miss Elizabeth Murray born January 18, 1834, and died July 9, 1853, leaving one child, Timothy. Mr. Burton's second wife was Miss Mary Finger, whom he married Sept. 29, 1853. She was born in this County July 29, 1826 and died in 1863. There were seven children by this union: Francis, Julia A., Fannie and four that died in infancy. February 4, 1864 Mr. Burton married Mrs. Fannie Bryant Overman, also a native of this county, her birth occuring July 31, 1834. By this marriage there were three children: Caswell R., Grace T., and Ransom E.

Mr. Burton owns 182 acres of land, all well improved. He has the largest apple orchard in the County, and for the past several years has paid considerable attention to fruit culture. He is a member of the Baptist Church, and liberal in his political views, a prominent and influential citizen.

Caswell R., the second son of Zachariah Burton was one of the most prominent and promising young men in Southern Indiana. On the breaking out of the war he became Lieutenant of Company C, Fiftieth Indiana Volunteer Regiment, and bravely went to the front to preserve his Country's honor. September 16, 1862, at Munfordville, while gallantly fighting, he received a gunshot wound, from the effects of which he died 14 days later. He was a graduate of the State University of Bloomington, Indiana, and of the medical department of the State University of Michigan, and his untimely death was deeply regretted by all. The Grand Army Post of Mitchell was named in his honor.

Hugh F., son of Zachariah Burton, was born in Marion Township, this County on July 20, 1834. After attending the district schools he attended the State univ. at Bloomington some three years. In 1862 he enlisted in Company K Seventeenth Indiana Infantry and served until the close of the war, participating in many engagements. Since then he has been engaged in farming and school teaching. He has taught many terms of school and is a successful and popular educator. His wife was Miss Mahala Hall, who was born in Marion Township April 25, 1848, their marriage occurred August 4, 1870. Five children were born to them: Rosa M., Ruth, and three that died in infancy. Mr. Burton owns 216 acres of land and is one of the most practical and successful farmers in Marion Township. He is a Democrat of the conservative kind, voting for men and measures, not for party. He is one of the County's well informed and useful citizens.

Of the numerous members of the Burton Family in Lawrence County, perhaps there is not one who is better known or more universally respected by his friends and relatives than Eli Burton Esq. of Spice Valley Township. He is a twin brother of Isom Burton, and they are the youngest of a family of thirteen born to John Pleasant and Susannah Burton.

Eli Burton's birth occurred in Ashe Co. N. C. October 15, 1807. He came with his parents to Lawrence County in 1826 and has since made it his home, farming and stock raising having been his occupation. From early boyhood he was accustomed to hard work, and although being the smallest member of this numerous family he was not lacking in native pluck and ability. He began life as a poor farm boy, and by hard work, economy and good management has obtained a goodly share of this world's goods, owning at the present time 1700 acres of good land. In early life his educational advantages were very limited, but in after years he acquired by study and observation a good knowledge of some of the lower branches, and is today one of the most practical and well posted men of the County. He has appraised the real estate of the County three times, administered many estates, held office as Justice of the Peace some sixteen years and Notary Public about the same. His entire public career has been noted for its efficiency, dispatch and honesty, reflecting much credit on him and resulting in lasting benefits to those for whom he labored. He has been twice married. His first wife was Miss Mahala Conley, daughter of John and Catherine (Miller) Conley, the marriage occurring February 19, 1832. To this union were born the following children: Simpson, Wiley G., Catherine, Rebecca A., Isom, John W., William H., George T., and Milton P.

Mrs. Burton was a lady of great social and moral worth devoting her entire life to her family, and to the social and moral conditions of the neighborhood. This most estimable lady died July 5, 1853, she was born near Brantsville, this County on March 17, 1812, and was one of the first white children born in this County. On February 26, 1857 Mr. Burton was united in marriage with Miss Phoebe Conley, daughter of Joseph and Margaret (McBride) Conley, and to this union have been born three children: Douglas, Joseph W., and Laura E. Mrs. Burton was born October 18, 1835.

Simpson Burton, son of Eli, was born September 22, 1833, and was brought up on the farm. He attended and taught school until 1853 when he entered Franklin College from which institution he graduated in 1859. It was largely through his efforts that the Mitchell Seminary was established and became a popular, worthy educational institution. In 1863 he married Miss Carrie Graves, a teacher in the school and a most estimable lady. Mr. Burton died at Bloomington Ind., Dec. 6, 1872 while engaged in ministerial labors. His wife survives him and resides with her children: Ernest, Ella, and Grace at Boise City, Idaho.

Wiley G., the second son of Eli Burton was also reared on the farm, and after spending one year at Hartsville College, entered Franklin College, graduating in 1862. Soon after this he entered his Country's service and was instrumental in raising Company H, Sixty-seventh Indiana Volunteer Infantry, of which he was elected Second Lieutenant. He died May 16, 1863 of diseases contracted in the service. His death was greatly regretted by his comrades and friends.

Isom, third son and fifth child of Eli Burton, was born February 26, 1841 and passed his youth and early manhood on the farm. He attended the common schools, Franklin College and the Mitchell Seminary, graduating from the latter. In 1862 he entered his Country's service becoming a member of the Company H Sixty-seventh Indiana Volunteer Infantry, and participated in the following engagements: Munfordville Kentucky, where he was captured, but soon after paroled, Port Gibson, Champion Hills, Grand Coteau, Mansfield, Fort Gaines, Fort Morgan and number of lesser engagements. He saw much service and is highly spoken of by his comrades in arms. He received his discharge July 19, 1865. Soon after his return home he took up the study of medicine, and after some time entered the medical department of the State University at Ann Arbor, Michigan graduating in 1868. He began his practice at Elletsville but after a short time came to Mitchell and embarked in the drug trade, in which he has since continued. He has business and social qualities of a high order, and has built up a large and steadily increasing business. He was united in marriage with Miss Kate Owen, November 17, 1868, and to this union were born three children: May, Lizzie M., and Pearl. Mr. Burton has been trustee of the Mitchell Schools seven years, and clerk and trustee of the Baptist Church about fourteen years. He is a member of the I. O. O. F., a Republican, and supports all enterprises that go to build up the country or benefit his fellow man.

William H., son of Eli Burton, was born in Spice Valley Township and reared to manhood on his father's farm. Beside the education he received in the common schools he attended the Agricultural College of Michigan for one year, and the State University at Bloomington two years. He has since been engaged in farming and school teaching. He married Miss Lillie J. Spencer April 12, 1883. Mr. Burton owns 380 acres of land, and is one of the practical and successful stock raisers of Marion Township. Politically he is a staunch Republican.

John W., another son of Eli Burton resides in Gallatin Missouri, where he is practicing dental surgery. Other members of the family reside at home, or near the old homestead, and are good citizens and useful members of society.

Isom Burton, son of John Pleasant, and twin brother of Eli of Spice Valley Township, is a native of Ashe County N. C., his birth occurring October 15, 1807. He came with his parents to this County in 1826, and has ever since been a resident of this County, and is well and favorably known to its people. Soon after coming to this County, he and his brother Eli made several trips to New Orleans on flat boats laden with produce, grain, lime and other articles. They usually started from the "old Nugent place" on White River, the trip taking several weeks and being attended with dangers, exposure and much hard work. The two brothers also farmed in partnership several years, and were quite successful. The subject of this sketch owns 450 acres of well improved land in the northern part of Marion Township, where he has remained nearly half a century. He was united in marriage in September of 1833 with Miss Mary J. Alexander. She was born in Wilkes County, N. C. May 27, 1814, and to their union eleven children were born: Frances M., Nancy C., Amanda L., Clarissa M., America A., Martin A., Rachel E., Marshall T., Mary R., Sarah J., and Charles A. Mrs. Burton died August 6, 1866. Mr. Burton has devoted his entire life to farming and stock raising, except for six years which he spent in Bedford engaged in mercantile pursuits, and giving his family superior educational advantages. He is both liberal and conservative in his political views, and has voted with and against the Democratic Party. He and his family take many of the best papers and periodicals and are among the most intelligent and progressive people in the County.

Martin A., son of Isom Burton, was born in Lawrence County, Indiana, May 7, 1844. He was reared on the farm, and in addition to attending the common and graded schools of Bedford attended the State University at Bloomington two years, and the Stratton Commercial College of Cincinnati, graduating from the last named institution. He then clerked and farmed for a while. In 1870 he came to Mitchell, and after clerking for a time he embarked in commercial pursuits for himself. He was elected sheriff of Lawrence County and made a popular and efficient officer. He has also held other positions of trust and is a useful, public spirited and worthy citizen. He was married December 28, 1868 to Miss Laura M. Brownfield, who was born in Kentucky April 8, 1848. Five children have been born to them: Jesse B., Fleta G., and Clyde (living); and Stella and Mabel, now deceased. Mr. Burton, a Democrat, is a member of the I. O. O. F. and the Methodist Episcopal Church.

William A. Burton, of Mitchell, was born in Lawrence Co. Ind. November 18, 1832 and reared to manhood on the farm. He is the eldest of five children born to William J. and Eliza Core Burton. William J.'s father was a son of David Burton, sixth son of John Pleasant Burton. In 1853 William A. entered the State University for two years, then taught school at St. Charles, Mo. for a time. In 1858 he took up the study of medicine. He attended lectures in Cincinnati, and graduated from Ann Arbour Mich. in 1861. He served as a private ten months in Company H Sixty-seventh Indiana Volunteer Infantry, when he was appointed assistant surgeon of his regiment, and served in that capacity until the end of the war. He followed his profession in Mitchell until 1869, since then has been engaged in the drug trade. He married Miss Ann Rariden Jan. 30, 1862, and to them have been born five children: Frank J., Ida Y., Jesse M., Edgar C., and Walter W. Mr. Burton is a Democrat, a member of the I. O. O. F., the G. A. R. and the Baptist Church.

Joseph A. Burton, son of William J. and Eliza J. Burton was born in Marion Township March 6, 1841. He attended the neighborhood common schools, State Univ. at Bloomington, and Franklin College. In 1862 he enlisted in Company H, Sixty-seventh Indiana Volunteer Infantry, and was color bearer up to the capture of Vicksburg. He was at Munfordville, Chickashaw, Bayou, Arkansas Point, Champion Hills, Mansfield, Port Gibson, Fort Blakely and many other engagements. He was a brave, true soldier, seeing much active service. After his return home he attended school for a time, then engaged in farming and stock raising. He owns 260 acres of well improved land upon which is a fine "sugar bush" of 300 trees, and by the use of new and improved methods he has built up quite a reputation as a syrup and sugar manufacturer. His marriage with Miss Laura M. Turley occurred Jan. 13, 1870. She was born in Orange County Ind. May 27, 1844 and is the daughter of Benjamin and Parmelia (Wright) Turley. They have three children: Turley J., Inez, and an Infant. Mr. Burton has taught several terms of school and has taken an interest in all moral and educational enterprises. He is a member of the Baptist Church and is liberal in his political views, voting for the man rather than the party. He is one of the best representatives of the younger Burtons.

Richard Burton, a farmer of Orleans Township, Orange County was born in Lawrence Co. Ind. August 17, 1844. He is the son of James and Frances B. (Hughes) Burton. He was reared on the farm, receiving a common school education. In 1862 he enlisted in Company K, Fifty-third Indiana Volunteer Infantry. He was in the battle of Corinth, seige of Vicksburg, and Atlanta. Here he was captured and for two months was a prisoner at Andersonville. He was with Sherman on his march to the sea, and participated in many other engagements, seeing much service. He has since followed farming and stock raising. He has been married twice, first in 1868 to Miss Amanda Webb, born in Orange Co. in 1837. By this marriage there were two sons, George I., and Newton A. Mr. Burton's second wife was Florence M., dau. of Samuel and Annie (Wyman) Mathers. Mr. Burton is a Republican, and is a member of the United Brethren Church. He owns a good farm and is one of the intelligent and progressive men of Orange County.

There are other members of this large and remarkable family of whom space forbids more than a mention. The family is represented in all professions, from the pulpit to the classroom; in the Civil offices from road supervisor to Governor, in the military from Private to Major-General. In religion they are principally Baptists, and are honorably represented in all the benevolent institutions. A majority of them are of the Masonic Order. The most of the voters are Democrats. They are remarkable as a social, peaceable and respectable family, and the ladies are especially noted for their beauty and moral attainments. Its members hasten to marry, and bring up large families, and all seem to do well. We find no less than eighteen different towns bearing the name in the several States.

They have a regularly organized society known as "The Burton Family Reunion Association" of which Dr. G. W. Burton was the projector. As a people they are of marked characteristics noted for their outspoken honesty, morality, frugality and generous hospitality, and no more honorable name is known throughout the State or Nation.

From "The Harrisons of Skimino," a published genealogy by Francis Burton Harrison, page 80:

"The Burtons are a prolific tribe. They swarmed from Virginia into North Carolina and Kentucky and overflowed into Indiana and thence further west. There is a headquarters settlement of them at Mitchell Indiana where they hold regular family reunions."

From the Denver Post, Denver, Colo., of June 6, 1941:

"Veteran of 1776 Interred Upright Over Century Ago. Soldier of Revolutionary War Buried Upright at His Own Request."

"Mitchell Ind. July 5: John Brown's body, which lies moldering in the grave may be more famous, but it is a conventional corpse compared to John Pleasant Burton's body which stands, moldering in the grave.

"John Pleasant Burton, a soldier in the Revolutionary War was buried here in a standing position, at his own request. And that position has not been changed in 105 years.

"The reason for this strange request: Burton who was a high ranking Mason in North Carolina, and George Tincher made an agreement that Tincher would be buried horizontally at Burton's feet. This agreement was made in respect for their relative Masonic positions, Burton's descendants believe.

"When Burton died, he was buried standing, with the funeral services performed by Tincher, later Tincher was buried at Burton's feet according to the agreement. To accomplish this verticle burial, holes were bored in the back of the coffin and Burton was roped upright. The coffin was then lowered foot first into the grave.

"Burton was born in Virginia July 8, 1758 and died in Lawrence County, Indiana at the age of 78. He fought through the Revolutionary War as a private in Joynes Company, 9th Virginia Regiment."

(On August 2nd, 1936, I visited the Burton Cemetery near Mitchell, Ind. There I saw the tall shaft that is a monument to John Pleasant Burton. On one side is the following inscription:

John Pleasant Burton
Born
In . . . Co. Virginia
Died
In Lawrence Co. Ind.
Buried standing at his request
Masonic Funeral Ceremonies Performed
By George Tincher
A Brother Mason

On the opposite side of the monument is this inscription:

Susannah Stamper Wife of
John P. Burton
Born
In Wilkes Co. North Carolina
August 22, 1767
Died in Lawrence Co. Ind.
August 10, 1845.

On a smaller stone which was draped with an American Flag, at the foot of the monument was the following inscription:

John Burton Pvt. Joynes Co. 9 Va. Reg. Rev. War.

My Grandmother, Susan Miranda Monroe Burton (key No. 184) who was a great-granddaughter of John Pleasant Burton, said that, according to family tradition John Pleasant Burton was "slanted a little" due to the solid Bedford sandstone underlying the land in Lawrence County, that he was buried within a few hundred feet of his home near Mitchell, and that George Tincher never was buried at his feet. [N.M.K.])

Hathaway North Carolina History and Genealogy Register, page 467:

. . . John Pleasant Burton emigrated to Indiana. There are now 1700 of them in and around the town of Mitchell Indiana. They have a Cemetery of their own, and hold their family reunions every summer. In their cemetery old John Pleasant Burton is buried in compliance with his own wishes, in an erect position, "because" he said, "the Burtons will hold their heads up".

Obituary from Louisville, Ill., newspaper 1920:
Susan Burton Tolliver

Susan Burton was born April 10, 1827 in Lawrence County Indiana. She departed this life July 19, 1920 at the age of 93 years, 3 months and 9 days. She was the daughter of Richard and Nancy Burton. She had six sisters and seven brothers who preceded her to the great beyond.

She was married to William Tolliver in 1850. To this union were born five girls and three boys: viz. John H. who departed this life January, 1919, Harriet McKnelly, who departed this life in 1888, Nancy Ann McCollum, Claracy McCollum, Isom and Richard Tolliver, all of Hoosier Township, Jenny Isom of Arkansas City, Kansas and Belle Burton of Mitchell, Indiana.

The subject of this sketch professed faith in Christ at a very early age in life and united with the Spice Valley Church of Lawrence County, Indiana. After moving to Illinois in 1866 she united by letter to Hoosier Prairie Baptist Church, and remained a faithful member until her death. Her husband died March 4, 1877, leaving her a widow, in which state she lived 43 years. She leaves surviving her, six children, 36 grand children, 48 great-grandchildren and a host of other relatives and friends. The funeral services were held at Hoosier Prairie Church, and were conducted by Bro. Sanders of Mitchell, Indiana.

Obituary from Louisville, Ill., newspaper.

Susannah Burton Monroe, daughter of David and Elizabeth Burton and widow of Chapman A. Monroe, was born April 20, 1817 in Ashe County, North Carolina and moved with her parents to Lawrence County, Indiana in 1824 (1826), where she was united in marriage with Chapman A. Monroe September 18, 1839, and moved with her husband to Clay County Ill. in March of 1849 where she continued to reside until her death on November 18, 1904. Her husband died in 1877.

Mrs. Monroe was the mother of fifteen children, nine of whom survive her. In addition to the care and burden of this large family, she reared two children of her husband's by a former marriage. She furnished to the service of her country in the war of the Rebellion three of her own sons and a step-son. At the battle of Atlanta her favorite son, Christian, was killed. This was a severe blow to her but she bore up bravely, and publicly prayed to God to crown the cause of the Union with success. Altho sorely tried and bereft of a son, and with three other sons exposed to the dangers of war, she deplored the fact that she had no others of sufficient age to give to her Country.

Her house was ever open to a soldier, and she nursed many crippled and wounded soldier boys. At the annual reunion of Company B, 48th Ill., held at the residence of Robert Ranes a few years ago she was elected an honorary member of the Association.

Mrs. Monroe was endowed with a strong mind and a deep religious nature. When but thirteen years of age she made a public confession of religion, and Jesus as her Savior in the Old Spice Valley Church near Mitchell, Ind. On removing to Illinois she united with the Baptist Church of Louisville, and was baptised. On the organization of the Second Little Prairie Church she became a charter member, and she and her husband gave the land on which the present Church stands.

She was a good mother, a true and loyal wife, a kind neighbor and an intelligent and patriotic woman. Her children and their descendants will rise up and call her blessed.

Her funeral services were held last Sunday at the Second Little Prairie Church, Rev. Edward Patton preaching the funeral sermon in the presence of a large congregation of her relatives and old time friends, and her remains were laid to rest beside those of her husband in the Tolliver Cemetery.

From "Clay County Republican," Louisville, Ill., Thursday, Feb. 11, 1937:
"The Last Burial of the Body of Abraham Lincoln"

Our reporter in Springfield recently interviewed Judge B. D. Monroe in relation to the last burial of the body of Abraham Lincoln. Judge Monroe formerly lived in Louisville and practiced law in Clay County for many years and for eight years was Judge of the county court. Afterwards he moved to Springfield and served for eight years as Assistant Attorney General. He was one of the last men to view the body of Lincoln when it was placed in the new tomb in Springfield in 1901. Judge Monroe is now past 84 years of age but remembers vividly the incidents relative to rebuilding of the Lincoln monument and interrment of Lincoln's body therein.

Judge Monroe said "I was a member of the special committee appointed by the Lincoln Monument Association to oversee the rebuilding of the monument in 1901. —The members of the Committee were Governor Richard Yates, Clinton L. Conkling, M. O. Williamson, State Treasurer, James S. McCullough, State Auditor, Joseph H. Freeman, State Sup't of Public Instruction, Floyd K. Whittimore, Ass't State Treasurer, Joseph N. Reece, Adj't General, John J. Brenholt, State Senator, Geo. N. Black, Col. James S. Culver and B. D. Monroe, Ass't Attorney General. (This is Uncle Baz. I have several letters from him written in 1935. He inspired me to do this genealogy. He had collected data on the family, but it had been destroyed when his law office burned. He was my grandmother's brother. N.M.K.) . . . Before Col. Culver began to take down the monument, it became necessary of course, to remove the large marble sarcophagus containing the body of Lincoln and the caskets containing the bodies of Mrs. Lincoln and the two sons to a vault built for the purpose. . . . During the summer of 1901 (when the monument was nearly completed) Robert Lincoln came to Springfield and made the request that his father's body be placed in the monument in such a manner that it would never again be disturbed. . . . Therefore an excavation 12 feet square and 12 feet deep with steel frames on each side of the casket, was made. After the casket was placed therein, the excavation was filled with cement up to the level of the floor of the monument.

Col. Culver notified the committee when the monument was completed and he was ready to remove the bodies from the temporary vault into the monument. Accordingly the whole committee went to the monument on the morning of September 26, 1901 and caused the casket containing Lincoln's body to be brought into the main room of the monument. . . . The committee then considered the propriety of opening the casket, and in view of the fact that an attempt had been made in the first days of November, 1876 to steal the body (which, though unsuccessful, yet left doubt in the mind of some) the committee, taking into consideration that this was the last burial of the body, decided that it was proper and right to open the casket and put forever at rest the whisperings going around the state that the body had been stolen and carried away.

Accordingly, in the presence of the committee a piece of the leaden casket about 15 inches wide and 2 feet in length, directly over the face, was cut out. The committee then viewed the face. It was perfectly preserved, even the mole on the side of the face was still there. . . . Anyone at all familiar with pictures of Lincoln would have recognized him at once. . . .

After all present had viewed him the leaden casket was sealed, then it was lowered into the excavation and the excavation was filled with cement. And thus was deposited in its final resting place the mortal body of the immortal Lincoln.

From Franklin, Nebraska, newspaper dated October, 1935:

Honor Mrs. R. D. Burton at family reunion Sunday.

Saturday, Sept. 29th, and Sunday morning relatives and friends arrived at the home of Mrs. R. D. Burton to remind her that her 90th birthday was near. Her birthday came Tuesday, Oct. 1, but as all could not come that day Sunday was made the day of the reunion. Mrs. Susan Burton of Kearney came Saturday, she being a cousin of Mrs. R. D. Burton. She is 87 years old, but stood the trip fine and very much enjoyed the affair.

New Orleans, December the 30, 1863. Dear Father, Mother and Brothers: It is by a kind Providence that I am permitted to drop you a line. I am again free from the hand of the enemy and in good health and I am thankful that I am again in a land where human beings are respected above the brute. I suppose you have heard of us being taken. We were taken on the 3rd of Nov. and was brought to our lines on the 25th of this month, being prisoners pretty near two months and that time we did not receive but one meal a day, and that was a little piece of corn bread and beef that we roasted on a stick, having no means of cooking otherwise. We was taken without having blankets or anything of the kind, nor any clothes only what we had on. We have suffered death nearly by being exposed to the cold. They camped us under a shed at an old cane mill but I did not suffer so much for something to eat as some others. I had some money and could buy $5.00 in confederate for one in green backs, then I could buy what they had by paying the money, tho they was glad to get green backs. After we was taken we marched 80 miles without any bread. We got a little corn meal and wet it and put it in a corn shuck and baked it. Though they gave us a little beef every day till we got to Alexander where we was put into camp about 4 miles from town. There they gave us a little corn bread. They are about played out. The majority of them is Union men who have been forced into their army against their will. We got into our lines on Christmas day and a part of us is exchanged. There is 42 out of the Regt. exchanged, 7 of my company, myself, Joe and Riley Burton and three others. All of the officers is exchanged and they got in last night without clothes like the rest of us. We are going to get clothing today and I expect our money soon. There is eight months pay coming to me. I expect we will go to Texas where our Regt. has gone, tho some say that the Governor is trying to get the 67th and the 60th home as they are not fit for duty, being cut up so. I think they will be ordered back from Texas. We are on the opposite side of the river from New Orleans. We are staying with the 11th Ind. at present and those that are not exchanged are over in the city. I will close soon. I have not got a letter from you since I left home. I am very anxious to hear from you, I think we will all get home by spring, tho I want to get revenge out of the sons of . . . . . Tell G.W. his revolver was saved, Del Burton saved it. I hear our Colonel was blamed with us being captured, but I think the fault was in the General. We was placed on the prairie a mile from any force to support the pieces of artillery. We got the order to fall back through after it was too late. There was 300 cavalry and 3 regts. infantry charged our regt. so that was the way we was taken in. The fault was in the General for placing us there though they did not get us without sombody being hurt. I will close. Write soon. Direct to New Orleans, Co. H., Reg. Ind. Vol.

Yours truly Eli Burton.

Algiers, La., Jan the 19th 1864. Dear father, Mother and Brothers: I seat myself to drop you a line. I am in good health. We have just received orders to go to Texas to our Regt. and I will not have time to write as I wrote to you the other day. I sent $70.00 by having it checked. Wm. J. Burton will get it and you will get it from him. I have not time to write more. Tell G. W. to write. Tell him that Dr. Burton has got his revolver at the Regt., and whatever he wants done with it I will do as I can't send it home. Yours in haste. Write soon. Eli Burton.

Decrous Point Texas Febr. 3 1864. Dear Father, Mother and Brothers:

I take the present moment of dropping you a line. I am in good health and hope these few lines may find you in good health and enjoying life. We left New Orleans the 18th of last month and arrived here the 23rd, being five days on the ship. We had a very cam (calm) time, but it made some of us very sick. We are camped on a peninsula which is 65 miles long and one mile wide, there is nothing here scarcely only sand. No wood but driftwood and no water hardly only salt water. We could get along well enough if we could get some good water once in a while. But as it is we are doing pretty well. The boys are in good spirits and are living in hope of a speedy peace which I believe is not far distant. Louisana is now ready to return and is making preparations to elect a Governor and to live again under the old Flag, and I believe the day is not far distant when we will be a united people. I hope we will have a peace which will be lasting, and I am certain we will have a government without slavery which has ever been a curse. When I was a prisoner I saw enough to satisfy me on that point. The majority of the rising generation of the South is very ignorant compared with those of the North, and they are taught from the pulpit to hate the people from the north. I would rather live under a king than to live in a slave state. You may call me a black abolitionist, I dont want to fight to free the negroes, but we can never have a lasting peace till it is done. And one thing is certain, if we dont do it now, future generations will have to do it. and I am in favor of not stopping till it is settled so that it will be lasting. There is one thing that people that has not engaged in this struggle, and have not left their homes, their friends and every thing that is near and dear to them in defense of their country, they dont know how to appreciate a good government. I would to God you could take our position for awhile and have to witness such as we do and be compelled to see men fall in battle, hear the cries of the wounded, and have your own lives at stake, then you would begin to know what a Government like ours is worth. I cant tell I may fall yet but if I do I am determined to discharge my duty. There is no Sargent with the Company but me. I have been very busy since I have got to the Regt. We are drilling 40 regulars at present. There is said to be a force of Rebs. about 35 miles from here and they are fortified and have some war vessels. I dont think we will attact soon. They are having a very interesting meeting. There has been 300 joined, 23 last night. It was conducted by our chaplain of the 67th., a good preacher and a good man. We have no card playing and no swearing in our Co. I would be glad if you would write me once a week and not wait to get a letter from me. I have not got a letter from you since I left home. If you dont want to write let me know and I will write to sombody that will write to me. I sent $70.00 home which you will get from Wm. J. Burton and I sent an overcoat by Allen Edwards, I close by asking you to write. Eli Burton. Direct to New Orleans Co. H. 67 Reg. Ind. Volunteers.

Decorors Point, Texas February the 8th, 1864. Dear father, mother and brothers: . . . dropping you a line in answer to yours which came to hand a day or two ago. . . . My health is good, the troops are in good health and good spirits. . . . I do not believe there will be much more fighting. Deserters (from the South) come in every day, they say all their men are in favor of deserting as soon as they get a chance. . . . Our Company is small, some of our men have not been exchanged. Our Captain is not with the Company at Present. The boys that came from around there, (Huron, Ind.) are all with the Company. I have been doing the duty of all the Sargents, as I am the only one with the Company. Yours truely. Eli Burton. P. S. Since I wrote this letter there was a man killed by accident in the Company. Shot thro the breast, killed him dead. Alexander Edwards shot him. They were playing. Nelson Fielder was his name. He came to the tent where Alex was sitting and says to the boys to surrender through his . . . (not legible). Alex took holt of his gun which was laying under his bunk and drew it out. The cock caught on the leg of the bunk and went off and killed him dead. Alex takes it very hard for being careless. He was a good man and had a large family.

(This letter has been abbreviated in printing, as it contains a lot of the subject matter of the previous letter.)

Note: The originals of the foregoing and following letters, and the war-time diary of Eli Burton are in possession (1956) of Mrs. Harold Valentine of Ravenna, Nebraska (Lona Burton No. 264).

Near Franklyn La. March the 10, 1864. Dear Father Mother and brothers:

I hasten to answer yours of the 23rd which came to hand yesterday. I was truly glad to hear from you and to hear you all was well, but sorry to hear of so much sickness in the country. I am in good health and the health of the army is good and has been good the past winter. There has been some few taken sick the last day or two, but nothing serious.

We left Texas the 22nd. and came by way of New Orleans. We got to this place day before yesterday after two days of hard march, which was very hard on me, not having marched for some time and it being very warm. It is supposed that we will go to Alexanderia, La. and perhaps from there to Texas. We have turned over all our tents and drawn small shelter tents which we carry in our knapsacks. We have a pretty large force going on this expedition. I dont think we will have much fighting to do untill we get to Texas.

The troops are in pretty good spirits. The officers in command think that the war will not last much longer. Everything bids fair for peace and now soon, for we are going to have a hard time in the spring, but it cant be much harder than we have had. The talk is that we will be paid off soon but cant tell.

We are getting along pretty well in the Company. I am 4th sergant acting orderly. Our Captain came to us today but is not going to stay. He is on detached duty at New Orleans. Our Regt. has got some recruits from the 60th Ind. Some that did not go into the service again.

Boys, I would advise you not to go into the service for you cant stand the service, but always stand up for your Country. I know enough about the service to know that you cant stand it. Write and let me know what you are doing at Huron. I would be glad to be home with you this summer, I dont think we will have to stay out longer than fall, I hope not, at least, but if we can only succeed in restoring peace we will be paid well for our trouble. If the people can only learn to appreciate a good Government, but that has always been the great difficulty. But we are learning a lesson that we wont soon forget.

Friday the 10th. I sit down this morning to finish my letter. It is warm and pleasant this morning. I have no news. I sent some sea shells home by express which you will get from Uncle David Burton. I want you to write and give me all the news. Write often. I will write again soon. Tell all the boys to write. Your brother, Eli Burton.

Hennersville La. Jan. the 22/1865. Dear Father, Mother and Brothers.

I take the present moment of writing you a line in answer to yours of the 8th. which I received yesterday. I was truely glad to hear from you and to hear you were all up. My health is not so good at present, I have had a very bad cold for some time. We have had so much wet disagreeable weather down here this winter altho it has not been cold. It rains here pretty much all the time which makes it very bad for camp life. When I last wrote you we were at Carrolton, La. We came to this place a few days ago which is 12 miles above New Orleans, on the river. How long we will remain I cant say, but not long I suppose as they keep us going. I would be very glad if we would leave here as our camp is knee deep in mud. Altho we have been exposed a great deal all the troops here are in good health. There are about 12,000 camped at this place. It is thought they are fixing for a campaign, but we cant tell yet what will be the issue. We have some talk of peace down here. There is some good moves being made toward it, if the report be true. I hope it is as we have had enough war for the present.

If we can have peace on honorable terms I am willing for to accept it. If it is not made soon there will be another draft. We hear down here that there is a move being made in Lawrence County to make money sufficient by laying a tax on the people to furnish substitutes. I think it would be pretty hard for a man to serve three years and then be taxed to keep others out. A man that would vote for it has no regard for a soldier. If some of them had to wade in the mud as we have and live on the fare that we do they would begin to sympathize with the soldier. I have yet 7 months to serve, after which I hope to return home. Write and give all the news. I was glad to get a line from James altho it was short. I close by asking you to write.

I remain, your son and brother, Eli Burton.

Letters by others.

State of Texas, Febr. 1864. Dear Cousin: I seat myself to drop you a few lines to let you know that I am well and I hope that when these few lines come to hand they may find you well and doing well. I dont know that I have anything good or interesting to write this evening only I would be very glad to see you very well. I think that if I was there tonight we would have a good time and I hope that the time is not far off when this awful war will come to an end as we once did with all our friends so turn our . . . (illegible) The boys is all well and in good spirits as I ever saw them. The boys that is exchanged has come to they Regiment. Capt. Kelly staid at New Orleans. I dont know when he will come to they Regiment. Well I must tell you . . . (illegible) a they time that we had New Years. Well for the first the sargent major came around and woke us up about 10 O clock and said that they was some rebels about ten miles from here and that we had to get up and go fight them. We got up and went and when we came to the spot they wasnt anything there only some sheep, and they General got around them and started for camp and there was some mad boys. They said there had never binn any rebels there. They said they only wanted some sheep for the officers and hit was enough to make any person mad for hit was cold enough to freeze they very devil. But they is some Generals is afraid that they wont get a big enough name if he dont march his men to death. They is one thing that I want this war to end for and that is so that some of they dammed officers will get out of office and the wont never wont get in office any more. My lite is getting dim and I will close and finish my letter in the morning. Well morning has come and I haven't anything knew and I will close hoping to hear from you soon. This from Alexander Edwards to Cousin Hardin Burton. Write as soon as you get this, and give all the news.

Rennersville Lusia January the 1865. Dear Cousin: I seat myself to write you a few lines to lete you know how I am getting along a solger . . . as Eli was writing and asked me if I didente wante some some to you my answer was of course I do. Now Cousin I guess Eli has wrote all of they news and I will tell you how I am getting alonge. I am well and getting alonge as well as solgers can expect. You . . . some in Elis letter I read them with pleasure to hear from you but was sorrow to hear that you was sick again. Well Cousin it has been raining about four days and they mude is about a foote deepe all over our camp and it makes it very disagreeable solgerin. It makes me want to see the end of my time come mity bade. Bute won thing keepes up my spirits is thinking it wont be longe till my time is up and then I will come home I think. Well it is about super and I will bring my letter to a close. By wishing you good uncle with your cold and hoping to hear from you. Excuse bade writing and spelling. Write soon. This is from your loving cousin Alexander Edwards, to my loving cousin, Isom Burton. Good bve for this time write soon Yours truly.

(In the original, the last three lines were written two or three words per line, as tho he were trying to fill out the sheet. It is quite apparent that he was a very young solger.)

Letter written to Rev. Hardin Burton, father of Eli Maxwell Burton.

Morganzia La. October 18, 1864. Dear Uncle, Sir: I received your kind and welcome letter of August, and I have been going back and forward so much that I did not take time to answer it until this morning and I hardly would have thought of it this morning only there is considerable talk of us going to leave this place and go to the mouth of the White River, and that dont suit Tolliver at this time of the year. If it were in March it would suit me fine, but after spending a year in the Sunny South it will go hard with the veterans, but if we cant stand it, who can? I know that if we cant stand it, the infernal copperheads at home would go to the devil rather than stand it. The darned Peace Party has hollered enough at home and never saw a battlefield nor never slept one night outside of their own house, but thank God some of them has to take her this winter, or feel down in the bottom of their pockets. We got news of Hardin Burton and William Miller being drafted. I am always glad to hear of such men as Miller having to walk the chalk. I wish they would draft every one of them, as they were so much opposed to war. You wrote that you were going to get married. I would like to be there, but it is entirely out of the question, as a man could not get a furlough on no account and if it was not for to see a good time I would not want it as I am sound as a pewter cent.

Tell Ervin that he might take time to write me a letter. I have wrote him two or three. Or write and let me know that he has not time and it would save paper and ink for me. I have not much more to write only we have pretty cold weather down here for this time of the year. We got the glorious news that Morton was elected by a twenty thousand majority and the State not all heard from. All I hope is that Old Abe will come in under the same head to be the next President. So to beat the Chicago Convention. I will close by saying write soon and give all the particulars of things that transpired and transpiring. No more, I remain your Nephew,

John W. Tolliver Co. A. 24th Ind. U. V. Morganzia La.

March 1, 1864. Doverhill. Brother H. Burton: i thought i would drop you a few lines to inform you that they smallpox are in Doverhill. There are six cases at present there are more a taking them so i thought i would send these lines to inform you that we had better post pone our meeting till they smallpox would abate as it is a dangers at this time to hold any kind of meeting at present.

Yours Nicholas Walton.

There is also a letter in this collection (1956—in the possession of Lona Burton Valentine) from Governor O. P. Morton, of Indiana, addressed to Rev. Hardin Burton. Subject—relief for soldiers' families. Similar letters were sent to ministers and to others to be read at public meetings.

Extracts from the diary of Eli Burton for the year 1864. We will not enter the full diary, but will attempt to select entries that will show the travels of that portion of the army to which he was attached. and also to show the morale of the Union soldier. The diary is quite complete with an entry for each day of the entire year. Our comments will be in parentheses.

Obituary from Kearney, Nebraska, "Hub," June 1939:

Susan M. Burton was born near Mitchell Ind. December 22, 1848. She was married to E. M. Burton and they came in a covered wagon to Adams County in 1874. In 1889 they moved to Buffalo County, Nebraska and settled near Kearney where they spent the remainder of their lives. Mrs. Burton moved into Kearney in 1917. In her early life she united with the church, and regardless of denominations, she and her husband worked in whatever church was in their community. When she came to Kearney she united with the Methodist Church. For some years she has not been able to attend church, but each week she prepared her Sunday School lesson faithfully.

There were born to this union twelve children, three boys and two girls having preceded their mother in death.

The father and husband went to his reward February 14, 1908. There remain to mourn their loss, one sister, Mrs. Lona White of Springfield, Mo., three sons, George W. of Kearney, Edward E. of Gibbon, Nebr., and Everette, of Pleasanton, Nebr., four daughters, Mrs. Nellie Kenton of Gibbon, Nebr., Mrs. May Turner of Kearney, Nebr., Mrs. Myrtle Bratton of Toponas, Colo., Mrs. Lona Valentine of Ravenna, Nebr., 48 grandchildren, 66 great-grandchildren, 3 great-great-grandchildren, beside the many friends which she made across the years.

She arose on the day of her death as usual and prepared herself for the day, but on the Sabbath Day, June 4, 1939, the Lord called her to her reward and now she knows more fully than ever the truth of the 23rd Psalm, which she so greatly loved. Funeral services were conducted by her pastor, Dr. Ray N. Spooner on Tuesday afternoon from the Methodist Church in Kearney, and burial was in the Riverside Cemetery at Gibbon.

Obituary from Howard County Herald, May 1925.

Ida Adell Burton was born in Lawrence County, Indiana, on March 20, 1873, and departed this life May 12, 1925. At the age of two, she moved with her parents, Eli M. and Susan M. Burton to Adams County, Nebraska, and has spent most of her life in this State, twenty-three years being spent at Boelus.

On March 20, 1892, her nineteenth birthday, she was married to Francis E. Starkey. To this union eight children were born. One child died in infancy. Seven children and her aged mother are still living. The children are: Nellie, now Mrs. Forrest Knox of Ault, Colo., Burton of Grand Island, Nebr., Virginia, now Mrs. John Seifert of Boelus, Laura, now Mrs. Don Milligan of Ault, Colo., Fern, now Mrs. Harvey Berck of Boelus, Gladys, now Mrs. Robert Hardin, of University Place, Nebr., and Shirley who is with her father at Ault.

On Tuesday morning, May 12, without a moment's warning, in the presence of only Mr. Starkey and Shirley, she fell into that sleep from which we awaken only in the presence of God.

The funeral services were conducted in the Boelus Methodist Church in which Mrs. Starkey had long been a faithful worker, by Rev. R. M. Fagan of St. Paul on Friday, May 15, and the body laid to rest in the Boelus Cemetery. The whole community came to pay their respects to this good woman. Not half the crowd were able to get into the church, and the floral gifts were magnificently beautiful.

Mr. Seifert is still living on the home farm in Sherman Co. near Rockville, Nebraska. 3 children.

From the Howard County Herald, February 1954.

Mrs. John Seifert, 58, prominent Sherman County farm woman was killed Thursday night when the car in which she was riding struck a roadside concrete abutment and turned over. Mrs. Seifert was thrown from the car and the vehicle rolled on top of her. Her husband, who was driving, and two passengers were apparently uninjured. tho they went to the hospital for examination. The accident occurred five miles south of Loup City on a gravel road about 7:45 PM. The party was enroute to a farm meeting at Comstock.

Funeral services for Mrs. John (Virginia) Seifert were held in the Boelus M. E. Church Monday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock, the Reverend Glen Kennicott, pastor of the Church, was the officiating clergyman.

Virginia Starkey was born 11/22/1895 to Francis E. and the late Ida Starkey. At the age of five she moved with her family to Boelus where she grew to womanhood and attended school, graduating from the Boelus High School in 1911. She taught school in this vicinity for a number of years. She became a member of the Methodist Church at the age of ten, and remained faithful during her remaining life, taking much interest in its services. She was also a member of the WSCS of the church.

On Jan. 3, 1917 she was married to John Seifert. Three children were born to them.

She was a charter member of the Loup Valley Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution, and was very active in Extension work in both Howard and Sherman Counties. She was an active member of the Farm Bureau Federation. Since their marriage they were engaged in farming in the Soulville Community, on what was the former Dave Seifert farm.

Mrs. Seifert was preceded in death by her mother, Mrs. Frank Starkey, two sisters, Mrs. Laura Milligan and Violet, who died in infancy.

Left to mourn her passing are her husband, John Seifert, two sons, David and Jack, one daughter, Mrs. Robert Chipps of Grand Island, her father, Frank Starkey of Ft. Collins, Colo., her sisters, Mrs. Harvey Berck of Boelus. Mrs. Donald Luther of Cairo, Mrs. Forest Knox of Loveland, Colo., Mrs. Robert Hardin of Norman, Okla., and one brother, Burton Starkey of Seattle, Wash., and other relatives and a host of friends. Internment was in the Soulville Cemetery.

The entire community extends its heartfelt sympathy to those who mourn the passing of their loved one.

From the Howard County Nebraska Herald:

Laura (Starkey) Milligan was born March 25, 1898, at Kearney, Nebraska, and passed away Sunday, August 31, 1947, at the home of her sister, Mrs. Forrest Knox, in Loveland, Colo., after a long illness, at the age of 49 years, 5 months and 6 days. The family moved to Boelus in 1900 where she grew to young womanhood. She attended the Boelus school from which she graduated, later she attended the Kearney Teachers College, fitting herself in the teaching profession. She taught school for four years. In her youth she accepted Christ as her Savior and affiliated with the Methodist Church. On May 26, 1923 she was married to Donald Milligan of Ord, Nebr. Following this marriage they resided in Grand Island, Nebr., later they moved to Monterey Park, Calif., where she was taken seriously ill, and she was taken to the Forrest Knox home in Loveland, Colo., where everything possible was done to relieve her suffering.

Surviving to mourn her death are the husband, two sons, Donald Jr. and Russell of Monterey Park; five sisters, one brother and a host of relatives and friends, her mother and one sister having preceded her in death.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at the Boelus M. E. Church, Reverend Chalmer Rummel of Cairo officiating. Interment was in the Soulville Cemetery. The Herald and the many friends of the family extend condolences in their bereavement.

(From "History of Lawrence, Orange & Washington Counties" by Goodspeed, Orange Co. ed. p. 291.)

"Henry Burton is a son of Isom and Elizabeth (Edwards) Burton and was born in Lawrence Co., Ind., Sept. 26, 1831. . . . Henry Burton came to Orange Co. in 1836 when five years old, with an uncle named Hutchings Burton. Until he attained his majority his home was with his uncle. He married Miss Cynthia Burton (No. 4-43) on Mar. 15, 1855." 6 ch. listed above.

(See p. 20 of first part of this history: James and Frances (Hughes) Burton had at least one son, Richard Burton who married first in 1868 Amanda Webb. They had two sons: George I. Contributed by Fay Burton Reiss:

The Mitchell Baptist Church has influenced the lives of many people. Susannah Stamper Burton was the first to join. It was established almost entirely by the Burton family. They bought the building from a college association and John Wesley Burton and Allen C. Burton practically built the church proper. J. K. Howard and Simpson Burton were the first two ministers.

Contributed by Gertrude Burton Brown of Gary, Ind.:

Obedience Reeves Burton was a woman short of stature and rather stockily built. She was a midwife and as such kept a horse always saddled in the stable ready for her to go. There were two slits in her skirt and her pockets were in her undergarments. In them she carried certain supplies in addition to those which were kept in her saddle bags, for use in the sick room. She was called "Biddy." We had one of her dresses when I was a child.

When William Buchanan Burton died in September 1846 his corn was, of course, in the field. It was customary for the neighbors, in such cases, to come in and husk the corn. It was also customary for the huskers to stop at the finding of an ear of Indian corn (red and purple in color), and pass the bottle. "Aunt Biddy" was not of the ilk who would tolerate alcohol in any form. Her sons reminded her a few days previous to the date set for the corn husking that they should ride to the McCoy distilleries some 25 or 30 miles away, for the "Peach Brandy." She said "no," even though it was the customary thing to do. She told my grandfather, John Wesley Burton, to explain her position and to say that they need not do the husking if they did not want to, but she would not hold it against them, that there would be the best dinner she could prepare waiting for them at noon and that she would continue as in the past to tend their wives. And so the first corn husking without liquor in Lawrence County was held just east of the present Burton Cemetery site.

History and Genealogy of the
of
Lawrence County, Indiana
Vol II

A WORD OF EXPLANATION

Due to pressure from people who were left out of Volume 1 and to the fact that so much family history, in the very early Colonial history, has been brought to our attention, it was decided to compile Volume II.

Some of the mistakes in Volume I have been corrected. Perhaps not all, because they were not brought to our attention. For this we are sorry. But each family can correct the mistakes in its own volumes.

A great many people helped to gather the material and to them we are very grateful.

In order to prevent confusion the page numbering for Volume II starts with 100.

Nellie M. Knox

Since the first book on the Burton genealogy was published, the eldest son of 1-7 David Burton (p. 23 of Book 1) has been discovered or rather some of his descendants discovered that he was left out. His home was in Lawrence County, Ky. instead of Lawrence Co., Ind. which probably accounts for the oversight. He was Detroit Burton b. Ashe Co., N.C. 12-30-1813 d. 5-30-1891 at Parkerville, Kan. m. 7-24-1831 Nancy Boggs b. 10-11-1815 d. 6-23-1894.

We are indebted to Benton Burton of Council Grove, Kan. for the history of this branch of the family as follows:

"Detroit Burton, the eldest child of David Burton was born in Ashe Co., N.C. 12-30-1813. Our records of his early life are not complete, but the dates and places are recorded in old Bibles and records in our families.

In the Burton Family History by Isom Burton he mentions his brother David Burton, the father of Detroit, just once and does not mention what date the David Burton family left North Carolina but it is presumed they left at the same time that John Pleasant Burton left with the rest of his families in 1824 for Indiana.

Detroit migrated back to Louisa, Lawrence Co., Ky. where he met and married Nancy Boggs. The following is recorded in their Bible: "This Certifies that the Rite of Holy Matrimony was celebrated between Detroit Burton and Nancy Boggs of Lawrence Co., Kentucky on Sunday July 24, 1831 at the John Boggs' on the Cain Creek Fork of Blair by Steem Wheeler. Witnesses, William Holdbrook and Malinda Johnson."

They lived in Ky. until 1854 when they decided to go West and take up homesteads. There were fourteen children born to them, all in Ky. except James H. Burton who was born in Kan. Their son David and daughter Rebecca were married in Ky. and the rest of the family were married after going to Kan.

The following is taken from the Williams Family History "My People" by Grace Kennedy whose mother was a sister of my grandmother Burton "Dicy" (Mrs. Miranda H. Burton): "They left the town of Louisa, Ky. by tug boat on the big Sandy River to Catlettsburg, then got a boat on the Ohio River and went to Cairo, Ill. where the Ohio empties into the Mississippi, then on the Mississippi to St. Louis, Mo., or near there where the Missouri River empties into the Mississippi. Then they took the Missouri River to Westport, landing at the Kansas border. They rented farms there and planted crops with which to have something to continue on into Kan. the next year.

The children went to school there that winter and the Younger brothers, cousins of Jess and Frank James were pupils of that school. The story my mother told me was very different from those we have pictured of the Jess James trouble (still quoting Mrs. Kennedy). According to the version of the Kentucky families, at a dance one night some soldiers stationed in this vicinity made some improper advances to Jesse's sister who was very pretty. Jesse resented this and the trouble started.

The names of some of the families who came along on this trip besides the Williams were the Burtons, Boggs, Campbells and Careys that I remember hearing mentioned. There may have been others, also.

Lewis Williams, along with some others of the group, including David Burton, made a trip into Kan. to secure their farms. The farms they selected were a few miles West of Willow Springs, in Willow Springs Township, Douglas County, Kan., about fifteen miles from Lawrence, Kan.

In 1855 David Burton and his wife pre-empted a farm just across the road and a bit North of the farm her brother William and father had selected. This section of the county was quite level and away from and above the river. The prairie land was sought by them on account of malaria fever which seemed to prevail very much among the people who settled along the streams. The Burtons owned and farmed this place for ninety seven years.

David died Nov. 26, 1902 and Sarah died June 22, 1917 and both are laid to rest in the Williams cemetery. The farm on which this cemetery is located was pre-empted by Lewis and Susan Williams in 1861. The first grave in this cemetery was that of John L. Williams, who died in 1861, son of Lewis and Susan Williams. The second grave was for Alfred Williams, two year old son of William and Rebecca Burton Williams. the third was for Martha Ellen Smith daughter of William and Marcia Burton Smith.

While it was started as a family burial ground, neighbors and friends are buried there also. The land was surveyed in the sixties or early seventies by Gideon Elias. The lots were sixteen feet square. It is thought that the first trustees were David L. Buron, H. C. Livermore and James Talley. Among others who are buried there are Meri S. Walters 1864, killed in Price's raid (His brother Marion Walters married Nancy Magdila Burton), Hardin Burton 1-7-1863. Rev. John Burton 1874, Daniel Smith 1844, his wife Anna Smith 1905, their son William Smith 1925 and his wife Marcia Burton Smith 1911, and three of their children, Martha Ellen Smith, Daniel Burton Smith and William Frederick Smih. End of the quote from Mrs. Kennedy.

Detroit Burton and his family settled in this same locality in 1855, but stayed there only a few years, then moved to Morris Co., Kan. Only David L. Burton and Rebecca J. Burton Williams remained in Douglas Co. The others came to Morris Co. in 1864. Already their daughter Nancy Magdilla Burton Walters and her husband had settled here in 1861 and their son Maranda H. Burton and wife Dicy in 1863.

The Civil War was in progress during this time and Douglas County and around Lawrence was a hot spot in Kansas. Lawrence was the first "Free State" town founded in Kansas in Aug. 1854. Topeka and Manhattan were also free state towns. Atchison, Leavenworth and Lecompton were pro-slavery towns. Twelve miles south of Lawrence Frank Coleman, a pro-slavery farmer shot and killed his neighbor, Charles Dow, following a dispute over the boundary between their adjoining claims. This was in the immediate vicinity where the Burtons settled. David Burton was a member of the volunteer Company of Cavalry of the State Militia to combat the Bushwhackers from Missouri.

Nancy M. Burton Walters and her husband Marion Walters settled on Clark's Creek in the west part of Morris Co. in 1861. He was postmaster at "Far West". He was the first school teacher in the community and a Justice of the Peace. He was a very successful farmer and stockman. He acquired 1600 acres of land which is practically all in the hands of his grandchildren, now.

My grandfather Maranda H. Burton was married to Dicy Williams 11-11-1862. They came to Morris Co. in 1863 and stayed with his brother-in-law Marion Walters. He built his log house on the upper part of the Neosho River Valley west of Parkerville Kan. This is the locality where most of the Burtons settled. In 1864 Detroit Burton secured land next to his son Maranda and built his log house on it, later building a frame house. This parcel of land is still in the Burton family.

These early settlers had their trials and tribulations-prairie fires, crop failures and grasshoppers. One year when there was no crop, Marion Walters and M. H. Burton bought hogs and drove them on foot to Iowa where there was corn, hired out, shucked corn, fed the hogs for market, sold them and returned home. Another time M. H. Burton and brother-in-law Jas. Kendall hired out to a Wagon Train on the Santa Fe Trail going from Council Grove, Kan. to Santa Fe, N. M. These two men killed the last wild buffalo in Morris County.

The Missouri, Kansas and Texas Railroad was building its line through Morris Co. from Junction City, Kan. to Parsons, Kan. It reached White City in 1869 and the road traversed a quarter section of land that M. H. Burton had acquired. The building contractor gave M. H. Burton a contract for doing some grading, which amounted to about $3000. He hired help to complete his contract, then the contractor left without paying for the work, leaving him to hold the bag, so to speak.

After settling here they organized a Union Baptist church and laid out a Burton Cemetery for family and neighbor use. M. H. Burton deeded two acres of his land for this purpose. If there were any records of the cemetery they were destroyed with the church when a tornado destroyed it in 1913. The oldest marker in the cemetery is for the infant son of M. H. Burton in Apr., 1871. Of the church we are more fortunate as the minutes are preserved in a book from organization in 1865 to 1894. They are the property of Priscilla Haun Moore whose grandmother was Clarinda Williams Hallmark, a sister of my grandmother, Dicy Williams Burton. The church was organized in the schoolhouse of Dist. No. 8 about 4 miles northwest of Council Grove. It was organized by Elder Ezra Johnson and the following are the charter members: Detroit and Nancy Burton, Elder John Burton, John A. Kendall, M. A.

Kendall, H. M. Ramsey, R. T. Ramsey, Dicy E. Burton and Eliza E. Crefts. They held monthly meetings, the first one being Sept. 1, 1865. Detroit Burton was chosen church Deacon. Elder John D. Burton was chosen pastor and served until 1870. (He also organized a Union Baptist church at the Watson schoolhouse on Clark's Creek near where Latimer, Kan. now stands (Mar. 5, 1866). Between 1871 and 1874 for which period minutes are missing, the church was moved to Parkerville schoolhouse. Then in 1887 it was moved to Dist. No. 20 called the Burton schoolhouse. On Feb. 2, 1880 it was decided to build a church building at the cemetery site on the land deeded by M. H. Burton. The church was finished in June, 1883. The building was painted white. It had two doors on the front with a wooden stoop. The benches were regular church benches in two rows. The stove was about midway of the church. Kerosene lamps hanging from the ceiling provided light. A rostrum with the pulpit was at the north end of the building. There was no musical instrument but an organ was soon added. The men entered the West door of the two on the South and sat on that side. The women entered by the east door and sat on that side. After the tornado in 1913 the membership was transferred to Parkerville Neosho Valley Union Baptist Church. After the tornado destroyed the church, the only articles found intact were the pulpit Bible and one kerosene lamp (the Truth and the Light).

The Burton Reunion was organized Sept. 29, 1897 on the old Homestead in the shade of the apple trees. There were 68 present for this first meeting. Among the families represented were James H. Burton, James P. Kendall, Marion Kendall, Amanda Burton, M. H. Burton, Marion Walters, George Bowser, George Burton, Curtis Burton, Con Reeves, Amos Kendall, Daniel Easter, Florence Seals, Aaron M. Kendall. It was a farewell for the Geo. Bowser family, moving to Taloga, Okla. where a number of their descendants still live. A fairly complete record has been kept of the reunion and the attendance runs from 90 to 125. At the 50th anniversary held in 1946. 220 people were there for the unveiling of a 12 foot granite shaft containing all the names of the 220 people, in a bronze tube cemented to the base of the monument. This is to be opened on the 100th anniversary in 1996.

I want to thank all who helped secure the names of the descendants of Detroit and Nancy Burton. We got most of them, but there are a few missing. I hope that relatives far and near and in the future will receive some benefit from it. God bless you all.

Benton Burton.

HISTORICAL NOTES ON BURTON FAMILY

"The Compendium of American Genealogy" Vol. 1 p. 935 states that William Burton (d. 1695 and was a descendant of Sir Edward Burton, Knight, 1460) went from England to Virginia in 1635.

Then from "Original List of Persons of Quality from Great Britain to American Plantations" by J. C. Hotten, London, England, we find this:

On Ship Abagail in 1635 to America

Agnes Burton	Francis Burton
Charles Burton	Judith Burton
Elizabeth Burton	George Burton
John Burton, Sr.	J. Burton
John Burton, Jr	Richard Burton
Thomas Burton	William Burton

Mr. Worth Ray is the author of "Tennessee Cousins" published by Southern Book Company in 1950. From Nugents "Cavaliers and Pioneers" and several other sources (all checked by me at Denver Public Library) he found that there were several Burtons who came to the Colony of Virginia in the early 1600's. They were probably very closely related, if not brothers. However, in the light of the "traditional" four brothers, we find ourselves particularly interested in Robert Burton, who married Susan Parker, in Thomas Burton who married Judith Maverill on May 27th 1619 at St. Savior's, Southwark, London, in John Burton who married Lydia Fry and in Richard Burton who married Katherine Christian on Mar. 3, 1605 at St. Savior's Southwark, London.

Mr. Ray says they could have been sons of Francis Burton, Gentleman, of the Burton family of Newcastle and York Counties, England, later of London.

We are descended from two to these Burtons, John and Richard. John Burton and his wife Lydia Fry had at least one child, Mary Burton who married Nicholas Perkins and had two children, Lydia Perkins and Nicholas Perkins. Lydia Perkins married John Noell (Nowell), son of Cornelius Noell and his wife, Elizabeth Page, daughter of Col. Thomas Page. (See Wills of Old Rappahannock. Will of Thos. Page dated Mar. 10, 1676). John Noell and wife, Lydia Perkins had at least one child, Mary Noell (Nowell) who married Robert Burton, son of John Burton of Longfield.

Elizabeth Page who married Cornelius Noell had a sister Mary Page who married Valentine Allen. Three of the children of Valentine Allen and Mary Page became ancestors of Burtons—Samuel Allen who married and had four children, one of whom was Samuel Allen, Jr., who was the father of Susannah Allen who married Hutchins Burton (1679-1763) and of Judith Allen who married Noel Burton (1696-1772). This Noel (Nowell) and Hutchins were brothers.

Two other children of Valentine Allen and Mary Page were Susanna and Judith Allen, great-aunts of the two above. Judith married Francis Burton, (son of Richard Burton and his wife Katherine Christian) and her sister Susannah married Thomas Burton, another son of Richard and Katherine. Among the five children of Richard and Katherine was John Burton (1632-1689) of Longfield. The wife of John of Longfield, according to deducations drawn by Mr. Ray, was Rachel Hutchins. He states that this is the logical point for the name "Hutchins" to have entered the Burton family. John and his wife had a daughter Rachel, and there was a Rachel Hutchins, daughter of Edward Hutchins who was according to Mr. Ray' deductions, a brother of the Rachel Hutchins who married John Burton.

However, Mr. Simeon O. Coxe, Sr., family genealogist, had another idea, which he approached through the Coxe genealogy. I am greatly indebted to his son, Mr. Simeon O. Coxe, Jr. of Metairie, Louisana, who sent me some of his father's unpublished material.

Mr. Coxe Sr., now deceased, lived in Virginia in the very vicinity of all the early Burton history. He spent a great deal of time in research at the library of the College of William and Mary in Williamsburg, as well as in various County court houses, examining records. His notes follow:

John Burton to (Virginia in 1625) and William Coxe (to Virginia in 1610) were adjoining land owners on the James River nine miles below present Richmond.

William Coxe came to Jamestown June 10th, 1610 in the "Goodspeed", one of the three ships in Lord Delaware's fleet when he came to govern the Colony of Virginia. William Coxe's footprints are clear all the way from his first habitation on the James River where Newport News now thrives, and up the James River to Varnia in Henrico County and to membership in Virginia's House of Burgesses in 1649.

On September 20, 1628 he received his "Ancient Planter's" grant of 100 acres, recorded in Land Book 1 Part 1 p. 89. The location is identified in this and other adjoining patents as in Harwood's Neck and bounded on the West by Deep Creek, on the South by James River. To the East there were other patents and a smaller creek known as Water's Creek. To the East of Water's Creek Robert Hutchins, Mariner, had received a grant of land some years earlier- perhaps as early as 1621, a mention of which is made here on account of the association of the two families for several generations.

William Coxe was quite a bachelor when he took a wife. Indeed marriageable women were scarcer than the items of their starvation fare. Hence it is no surprise that he was not married until about 1630-33, possibly as late as 1635. Well, you ask-who was the belated bride? After putting together a very intricate jigsaw puzzle, having found the many parts in widely scattered sources, I think I can introduce her and not mistake the name. She was Elizabeth Hutchins, daughter of Robert Hutchins, Mariner. Robert Hutchins and William Coxe were almost "next door" neighbors, each having a grant of land on the lower James River shore not far from the present site of the Newport News Shipbuilding and Dry Dock Company.——It should be noted here that Robert Hutchins was a mariner and not a planter. Every appearance of his name notes this distinction. Hence the inference that he occupied his land on the lower James River-only by a tenant; that he would be present in the community only when his profession brought him into this port;and that his home was maintained in England. Further, it should be noted that Isaac Hutchins and Elizabeth Hutchins came into the Colony at approximately 1633. (They were brother and sister and children of Robert Hutchins).

See "Cavaliers and Pioneers" by Nugent for patents to land of William Coxe, Alice Edloe (his sister) and Isaac Hutchins, adjoining. The name William Coxe has been spelled Wm. Cooke, but the same land is later inherited by the heirs of Wm. Coxe in the final settlement of his estate in 1665.

There are three items of record all in the year 1665 which have the appearance of the settlement of the estate of Wm. Cox. These items indicate that there were three children as follows:

First there was a daughter, name not discovered, who married John Burton about 1650-2. (Their first child, Mary was born 1654). Second a son, John Coxe born about 1635 and died in Henrico Co., Va. leaving a will. He had six sons, the eldest of whom was William. The lands involved in this will are the same lands appearing in the records here presented. The third child was Thomas Coxe.

On Mar. 22, 1665 John Burton, (who had married the sister of John Coxe), in order to perfect his title, secures patent for 600 acres called "Longfields" which land had been assigned to him by John Coxe. This is, of course, a reference to an original deed or conveyance by assignment instead of sale. No doubt it covers the claim of John Burton through his wife, upon the estate of William Coxe.

What was the source of the Coxe title to this tract of land on the South side of the James River? Answer: John Burton and a brother of his first settled in that very community on the South side of the James. The brother, Thomas, remained there and established himself as the progenitor of a host of Burtons. But John Burton married the daughter of William Coxe. over on the opposite bank of the James River, and in exchange for a home and sufficient acreage at "Longfields", John Burton, the son-in-law, gave title to his tract at "Warrick", awaiting the larger bequest of "Longfields" in the final settlement of the estate of William Coxe- at least so it seems to me.

Sources of items pertaining to William Coxe:

The above references show that William Coxe did not dispose of his land in Elizabeth City immediately upon moving (about 1633) to Henrico Co. But with no further reference to it, the presumption is that he sold it shortly after the last reference.

Isaac Hutchins was their uncle.

Virginia Magazine 3-288 "In 1646 we come again upon the name of William Cocke (Coxe) in a list of the House of Burgesses. He represented Henrico to which County he must have moved from Eliz. City Co. He was no doubt a brother or near kinsman of Richard and perhaps died unmarried. He disappears as suddenly as he appears. We have no historian of that date". Of course much of the above is in error as we can see from the wealth of information here presented. He was not related to the Cocke family and he did not die unmarried.

Line of descent of Simeon O. Coxe:

1. William Coxe m. abt. 1633 Elizabeth Hutchins (1612-14 post 1656) probably daughter of Robert Hutchins. Issue: sons Thomas and John and daughter Mary (?) who married abt. 1650-2 John Burton of "Longfields" Henrico Co., Va.
2. John Burton (c. 1625-1690) and his wife Mary Coxe Burton had issue: seven children among them Robert of "Longfields"
3. Robert Burton (c. 1654-1724) married Mary Nowell and had issue: five children, among them,
4. Hutchins (c. 1690-1763 married Susannah Allen, daughter of Samuel Allen of New Kent. Here again the grandmother brings forward her maternal family name "Hutchins". And this Hutchins Burton became the progenitor of numreous Hutchins Burtons long after the source of the name had been forgotten. Hutchins and Susannah Burton had 11 children, among them Richard (c. 1722-1779) m ? probably Mary Pleasants. Their eldest son was named John Pleasants Burton. There was also a younger son, William and a daughter Jane.
6. Jane Burton (c. 1754-post 1811) m. abt. 1770 George Reeves.

On the same day, 12-16-1773 Richard Burton and George Reeves patented adjoining lands on the Virginia-North Carolina line — Reeves in Va. and his father-in-law in N.C., This was in present Grayson Co., Va. and Ashe Co., N.C.

George Reeves (c. 1735-1811) and his wife Jane (Burton) Reeves had ten children among them Prudence Reeves (1785-post 1850) married about 1807 Andrew Cox, son of David Cox. Andrew and Prudence Cox had a large family most of whom migrated to Lawrence Co., Ind. in 1836. Only William, their son and Cornelia, his sister, migrated to Alabama. This William Cox was my grandfather who was born in Ashe Co., N.C. in 1811.

From a letter dated 1897, written by George Reeves of Ashe Co., N.C. He was born in 1812. "My grandmother's name was Jane Burton, She was first cousin of Hutchins C. Burton who was, I believe, the third governor of North Carolina".

From "Burton Chronicles" by Francis Burton Harrison: Wm. Coxe was grandson of William and Elizabeth H. Coxe. His wife, Sarah Burton was a granddaughter of Mary Coxe and John Burton and so great grand-daughter of Wm. Coxe and Elizabeth Hutchins Coxe. Thus Wm. and Sarah were cousins of some degree. John Jameson was also a great grandson of Wm. and Elizabeth H. Coxe and so a cousin of his wife, Elizabeth Coxe-being a cousin to both his father-in-law and his mother-in-law. John Burton, whose wife was Mary Coxe, daughter of Wm. and Eliz. Hutchins Coxe was guardian of his wife's nephew, John Jameson-and his benefactor-having made certain gifts to John Jameson.

(The above statement by Gen. Harrison proves to me the correct name of the wife of John Burton of "Longfields". N.M.K.)

1773 Richard Burton 260 acres Fincastle County on east side of New River part of Loyal Co. grant, etc. Surveyed for Jonathan Stamper. (Jonathan Stamper's daughter Susannah married Richard Burton's son, John Pleasants Burton. N.M.K.)

"From citations in Valentine Papers — Richard Burton, Capt Wm. Bernard and John Pleasants (of Henrico Co., Va.) were landowners in the same community in Cumberland Co. in 1749.

"As to the name of Richard Burton's wife: It is not likely that her name can be established. But the name of their son, John Pleasants Burton, certainly offers a clue to the maiden name of Richard Burton's wife. There are several facts to be noted that add strength to the clue that she was a daughter of this John Pleasants (of Henrico Co. Will 1772). The will makes no mention of such a daughter, but since she and Richard had only three children—Jane who married Geo. Reeves (c. 1767); John Pleasants and younger son William, it is likely that she died early-perhaps before the migration of Richard Burton and his children to N.C. (c. 1765). It is also worth noting that this John Pleasants (of Henrico) as well as his wide circle of kith and kin were sticklers for family names. This John Pleasants in the preface to his will says, "I, John Pleasants, the third of the name in Virginia, etc." That matter of religious incompatibility may have been the cause of omission of the name of a daughter from the will of John Pleasants. She may have been "disowned" (because the Pleasants were Quakers. N.M.K.) However there are numerous possibilities untraced in the Valentine Papers".

(It is not clear whether all the above is from Valentine Papers. It seems most likely that a great deal is comment by Mr. Coxe, Sr.)

End of notes by Mr. Coxe.

8. Ann Burton m. Anthony Mathews
9. Susannah Burton m. William Price. At least 1 dau. Nancy Price m. 9-17-1798 John Burton.
10. Isaac Burton
11. Julius Burton b. 1734 m. 1763 Rebecca Clayton.
12. Richard Burton m. — Pleasants (?) at least 1 son, John Pleasant(s) Burton and perhaps a dau. Jane and a younger son William d. abt. 1782 John Pleasants Burton m. Susannah Stamper and had 13 children (See p. 22 Vol I)

The possibility that the wife of Richard Burton was a Pleasants leads me to include a sketch of that family lineage.

William Pleasants d 1583 Norwich, England m. Katherine Petros d. 1558. One son was Robert Pleasants who d. 1591 m. Johan — One son of the above couple was John Pleasants 1618-1662 "Worsted Weaver" who married Katherine —. One son of John was John Pleasants 1644/5-1698 m. Jane (Larcome-Tusker). Quakers. Emigrated from Norwich, England in 1665. Settled on James River in 1668. Two of their sons were: John Pleasants 1672-1713. (Inventory of his estate Aug. 24, 1714), and Joseph Pleasants m. Martha Cocke. Joseph and Martha had a son John Pleasants who m. Susanna Woodson and had the following six children: Robert, Joseph, Jeane, Martha, Richard, Thomas. John Pleasants above whose estate was inventoried, m. Dorothy Cary who m. as her second husband, Robert Jordon. John and Dorothy had the following children: Joseph Pleasants m. Elizabeth Jordon; Jane Pleasants m. Robt. Jordon; Anna Pleasants m. Joseph Jordon; Dorothy Pleasants m. Mathew Jordon; Thomas Pleasants m. Mary Jordon. Thos. was born 9-3-1695. Was Quaker Minister or preacher in 1739 at Cedar Creek Meeting, Hanover Co., Va.; John Pleasants, Henrico Co. d. 1772 m. (1) Margaret Jordon d. 1746 (2) Mary Woodson (3) Miriam Hunnicut, widow. Any one of the above sons of John Pleasants 1672-1713 could have been the father of Richard Burton's wife. Perhaps her name was Jane, because the first child of Richard Burton was Jane. (not proven).

Since all these Pleasants married Jordons, it is well to include a bit of the Jordon lineage:

Samuel Jordon. 1609 to Jamestown, Va. In Burgess assembly of 1619. His son Thomas was born 1600 and he had a son Thomas 1634-1699 who lived in Nansemond Co. Va. where there were a great many Quakers. The Jordons were Quakers. One of the sons of this last Thomas was Robert Jordon. Thomas Pleasants married Mary Jordon and John Pleasants married Margaret Jordon.

(Most of the above is the work of Mr. Simeon Coxe, Sr.)

Another interesting item which may have family connections:

Virginia Magazine Vol. 27 p. 301

Will of William Fry dated 3-12-1624 proved 2-25-1625.
mentions "Thomas Hutchins, my uncle and Richard, his son-my overseers"

This William Fry is given on the chart by Mr. Worth Ray as follows:

"Token" Ancestor Francis Burton, Gentleman, etc. 7 children.

Robert Burton	Thomas Burton	John Burton	Richard Burton
m. Susan Parker	m. Judith Maverill	m. Lydia Fry	m. Katharine Christian
			Byron Burton
			Ralph Burton
			Ann Burton
			m. William Fry

If all the above were brothers and sister, John's wife and Ann's husband were probably also brother and sister.
